

Rail Magnates Adopt Billion Dollar Policy

New Appropriation Will Bring Total Since 1922 To $1,732,516,836

WOULD RAISE EFFICIENCY

Spirit Of Unity Newly Risen Among Roads Responsible For Co-operation

New York—Forecasting for 1924 another period of such record-breaking freight traffic as the United States has experienced in the year just passing, two national organization executives of the foremost railroads Thursday adopted an ambitious program of financial and physical expansion in the next 12 months.

The program drawn by the board of directors of the American Railway association representing 240 roads, was approved by the full membership in session at the Yale club and later by heads of the 194 class one roads which comprise the Association of Railway Executives.

It contemplates the aggregate expenditure, exclusive of what appropriations may be contained in the 1924 budgets—of $213,894,000 already authorized for new locomotives, cars, and equipment. This would bring total capital expenditures of class one roads since 1922 to $1,732,516,836—a high precedent in the history of American transportation for any similar period.

Although the program did not specify the total capital expenditures for 1924 that might be written in the budgets, of individual roads, it expressed complete satisfaction with results of the billion and a half dollar plan for expansion embarked upon last spring.

The goals set then had been nearly attained; many traffic records had been smashed to carry the freight of an era of industrial prosperity; much new equipment had been acquired and old equipment restored to service, car shortages had been few, traffic congestions rare and embargoes almost eliminated.

All these and the A. R. E. pointed out in adopting the program, were due principally to a new spirit of unity among the railroads and of cooperation between the roads and the public. The program for 1924 is a bid for further expansion toward the goal of maximum efficiency, accompanied by more perfect team work between the roads and the public.

The roads pledged themselves to: "Continued intensive effort to reduce the percentage of locomotives and cars awaiting repairs, and maintain it at the lowest possible minimum consistent with the volume of business offered and the revenues the roads are permitted to earn.

Increased supervision by the roads and greater cooperation with shippers to attain fuller utilization of car capacity. Continued intensive effort to increase the average daily movement per freight car and to set new records for prompt movement of traffic. Thorough consideration of the possibilities of a more extensive interchange of joint facilities.

Continued complete cooperation of the roads through the car service division of the American Railway association which provides a central control and distribution of freight cars between various railroads and territories.

SPECIAL SESSION MAY BE CALLED TO SET SCHOOL FUNDS

Emergency Board Called To Meeting On Appropriations By Governor

Madison—Whether or not a special session of the state legislature will be necessary to appropriate funds for state institutions probably will be determined Friday when the emergency board meets at the call of Governor Elihu. Estimates of officials Thursday placed the necessary emergency appropriations between $500,000 and $700,000.

Another application for additional funds was filed with the board Thursday by the state tax commission which asked for $15,000. A detailed financial statement of the commission shows that available funds for the present year total $253,561, which estimated extension will be $254,612 based on expenditures of the first three months of the year. Unless additional funds are allowed the commission said it will be required to curtail its work, reduce the force of assessors of incomes or their salaries.

The state university has asked the emergency board for appropriations of approximately $300,000 as reimbursement for the $254,612 to make operation appropriations. It is estimated that normal schools will require an application of between $300,000 and $400,000. Two members of the emergency board are understood to favor the school appropriations.

Frank Smith Is Triplets

By Associated Press
San Diego, Calif.—John Doe was outdone in San Diego police court Wednesday.

"The people versus Frank Smith, announced the bailiff. Three men arose and came to his desk.

"Which of you is Frank Smith?" the bailiff asked.

"I am," chorused the three men.

"They were sorted according to weight, age, etc., and identification as."

Frank Smith No. 1—Fined $5 for improper parking.

Frank Smith No. 2—Assessed $10 for indiscreet operation of his automobile in a public street.

Frank Smith No. 3—Held in default of $500 bail on a vagrancy charge.

"All other Frank Smiths dismissed," said the judge.

BAR PIN IS SOLE CLEW IN CHURCH DEATH MYSTERY

Alabama Officials Seek To Trace Movements Of Missing Girl

Tuscaloosa, Ala.—Officials investigating the finding of a woman's body in the remains of a Negro church which burned here last week are puzzled as to what step to take next.

At least one girl from Birmingham was found to be missing but the task of officials has been to trace her movements after she was last seen. A bar pin found after the fire is said to be a connecting link by which Birmingham officials hope to establish the identity of the woman. A merchant is quoted as saying he sold this pin to a woman who is said to have been the companion of a man who left Birmingham for Tuscaloosa Tuesday.

Alf Winchester, held in the county jail here since his arrest Sunday, will attempt to establish an alibi at his preliminary trial, it is said. A statement was made Wednesday to authorities by Mose Ashley, member of the Tuscaloosa police force, that he saw Alf Winchester alight from a train on the night of the fire in company with a woman, both of whom rode away in his car. The woman was carrying a suit case, he said.

Jack Johnston, arrested Tuesday night in Birmingham in connection with the case, is still held in the city jail.

DISCHARGES CAUSE VIRGINIA WALKOUT

Railway Firemen And Engineers Strike In Protest Against Dismissals

Roanoke, Va.—Virginia railway firemen and engineers to a number not determined, walked out Thursday as a result of a dispute over the discharge of several of their number recently. Railroad officials estimated that between 40,000 and 50,000 men had quit work in two thirds of the line's engine crews.

The railroad labor board had ordered action held in abeyance pending a hearing on Nov. 14, on the controversy between the railroad and the men. Vice President C. H. Hix of the road telegraphed the board Thursday asking authority to employ men to fill vacancies so that all trains might be kept in operation pending settlement of the dispute.

Train schedules, Mr. Hix said, are not being seriously handicapped.

Atlanta Plans Traps To Check Speedsters

Atlanta, Ga.—Placing rough rubble stones at rail crossings and street intersections to force motor car drivers to slow down or damage their cars was included in a list of recommendations the Atlanta Safety council will propose as a means of checking reckless driving in the city. The suggestion was made by R. L. Cooney of Atlanta, and accepted by the council.

The rest of the relatives included six daughters and 40 grandchildren. A regular Roosevelt family, indeed.

Vassar Girls Grow Taller From Sports

By Associated Press
New York—The college girl is growing. Since 1884 she has sprouted an average of one and three tenths inches. She also is putting on weight.

Her waist measurement is larger and even her lung capacity has improved. These advancements are based on statistics compiled at Vassar college by Miss Mabel Newcomer, economics department, from measurements taken by the department of physical education. The figures show that from 1884 to 1920 the weight of college girls increased from 123.5 to 125.8.

The waist measurement dropped from 25 to 22 inches from 1884 to 1896, stood still for ten years and then gradually increased until it reached more than 25 inches once more.

Improvement in physical condition was attributed to the increased interest in athletics.

MILWAUKEE COURT STARTS BOOZE WAR

Judge Opens Way To Closing Of 75 Saloons In Ruling Is Sustained

Milwaukee—Overruling a demurrer by counsel for Sophie Thekan to the state's petition declaring her saloon a public nuisance, Judge Walter Schinz opened the way to closing of seventy five or more soft drink places in Milwaukee-co if the state supreme court upholds his decision.

The action is important in that a large number of cases now pending will be decided upon the findings of the court.

Frank M. Thekan, who ran the place, was convicted twice in district court of violation of the prohibition law. "I am satisfied that Judge Schinz and our complaint will be sustained, and that will mean that every saloon in Milwaukee whose owner has been convicted twice or oftener of violations of the liquor laws will be forever closed to the liquor business," said Eugene Wengert, assistant district attorney. "We have at least seventy five such cases and when the course is clear for us to move we shall do so with speed and determination."

STATE WILL PROBE SLAYER'S SANITY

By Associated Press
Superior—Judge Archibald McKay of superior court received word Wednesday that the state board of control will hold an investigation Nov. 19, to inquire into the mental condition of Jacob Vassili now confined in the state prison at Waupun for the murder of Nicholas Triff, Austrian laborer in Allouez, last December.

Vassili was found guilty of second degree manslaughter by a jury in superior court several months ago and sentenced to serve seven years in prison by Judge McKay.

If Vassili is found insane the board of control will order his transfer to the state hospital for the insane, it was said.

REUTER TAKES BACK CHARGES AGAINST PRIM

Mayor Makes Public Retraction Of Accusations Against Police Chief

Mayor Henry Reuter Wednesday evening made a public retraction in the council chambers of charges that he had made at a meeting of the council on Sept. 5 against George J. Prim, chief of police. The mayor read his retraction which was received without comment. It is believed the public statement ends a delicate situation within the city government which had its inception at the Sept. 5 meeting when the mayor, following his veto of a council resolution against letting the police car, publicly accused Chief Prim of withholding certain money which the chief received from Outagamie for police service.

The mayor's retraction, addressed to members of the council follows: "At a meeting of the Appleton Common Council held on the 5th of September, 1923, I made certain statements with reference to the handling of the city fund by Chief Prim. "I stated at that time, that I had found from an investigation of the county records that Chief Prim had collected certain sums of money for services from Outagamie County. I had before me at that time the printed proceedings of the County Board showing the filing and allowance of these claims by Chief Prim and the subsequent payment of the money to him. I stated further that I had found of record of any of that money being paid over by him to the City of Appleton. At that time that I made those statements I believed them to be true because I had not only talked

Lawyer Would Organize Posse To Take Prisoner Out Of Appleton Jail

A political lecture at the S. A. Cook, armory of Neenah was nipped in the bud early Wednesday and a crowd was kept waiting for the speaker who failed to appear. It was said that the lecturer had taken ill at Wisconsin Rapids and could therefore not fill his speaking engagement. As a matter of fact, the speaker was being detained in the Appleton jail.

The man is A. R. Kohl, Milwaukee newspaper man, who is touring the state with a concert and dance orchestra and giving lectures on state tax legislation. Mr. Kohl was taken into custody at Hotel Appleton Wednesday evening by Chief George T. Prim upon receiving a message from Chief Leubenhauer of Milwaukee demanding Kohl's arrest on a charge of moving mortgaged property. Milwaukee officers were to arrive Thursday afternoon to take the prisoner to Milwaukee.

LAWYERS GET BUSY

Nearly a half dozen lawyers of Appleton immediately became interested in Mr. Kohl's behalf and a strong effort was made to secure his release, which was persistently refused by Chief Prim. At length L. Hugo Keller, court commissioner, issued a writ of habeas corpus ordering Chief Prim to deliver the prisoner in Mr. Keller's office at 11:45 Wednesday evening. Chief Prim ignored the writ.

One of the lawyers laboring for Mr. Kohl's release Thursday morning appealed to Mr. Keller to have the sheriff organize a posse and forcibly remove the prisoner from jail. Chief Prim when informed of the proposal, blustered and said that if the prisoner were taken out of jail it would be the sheriff's dead body. Sheriff Otto H. Zuehlke denied that he had been asked to force entrance into the jail.

The attempt to secure Mr. Kohl's release on the presumption that Kohl was innocent has been sworn out against him was dropped Thursday morning when Judge A. M. Spencer declared that Kohl could not be ordered out on habeas corpus writ outside of office hours. Mrs. Kohl and a son are staying at the hotel.

A concert lecture and dance in the armory at Milwaukee inaugurated the Kohl's arrest on a charge of moving mortgaged property. Milwaukee officers were to arrive Thursday afternoon to take the prisoner to Milwaukee.

It is suspected that political enemies at Milwaukee inaugurated the Kohl's arrest on a charge of moving mortgaged property. Milwaukee officers were to arrive Thursday afternoon to take the prisoner to Milwaukee.

Asks Legion's Aid To Regain Official Life

Fresno, Calif.—Frank Pira, "killed in action" in France five years ago and for whom taps has been sounded at four Memorial day exercises at Madera, near here, has appealed to S. B. Hern, commander of the Madera post of the American legion for aid in recovering his citizenship and establishing himself on army records as a living man.

Pira declared that he had been denied the privilege of rejoining his company in France because he was reported dead and that he refused his own $10,000 life insurance while visiting his parents in Italy. He later returned to the United States as an immigrant after being refused entry as a citizen because he was officially dead.

The Madera post has taken the case up with Washington authorities.

GREEN BAY LABORER KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Moment's Carelessness Costs Life Of Worker On Railway Crane

Green Bay—A moment's carelessness cost the life of Antonio Siefeldt of Coleman, Wis., laborer at a local coal dock late Wednesday. The workman was caught and crushed by the revolving deck of a locomotive crane loading a freight car, as he rose from a stooping position on the ground beside the machine.

The accident occurred about 3:30. Siefeldt who has been working around the locomotive crane for the past three months, was in a kneeling position on the ground blocking the wheels of the machine, it was said. He rose to a standing position as the crane revolved, and was instantly killed.

WOMAN, 26, FATALLY INJURED IN BLAST

By Associated Press
Milwaukee—Mrs. Mary Toline, 25, was fatally injured by a tree stump which crashed through the top of her automobile Wednesday as she was driving through the national soldiers' home grounds here.

The accident occurred when workmen engaged in clearing land on the ground set off a blast under a stump as Mrs. Toline's car was passing along the drive some distance away. The stump did not fly in fragments, but flew nearly intact high into the air and came down on the automobile.

The machine with its fatally injured driver, left the drive and came to a stop against a tree. Men ran to it and carried the woman to the hospital where an operation was performed at once.

Mrs. Toline was the wife of Dr. C. A. Toline, staff dentist at the soldier's home.

Emperor Challenges Imperial Wizard To Give Public Facts Of Murder

ISSUE SIGNED STATEMENTS
Chief Of Staff To K. K. K. Head Explains Sudden Departure Before Trial

By Associated Press
Atlanta, Ga.—William Joseph Simmons, Emperor of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Thursday issued a signed statement, in which he challenged Dr. W. H. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the organization to come out into the open and give the public the facts in connection with the shooting to death of Captain William S. Coburn by Philip E. Fox, publicity agent of the Klan, here on Monday afternoon.

Dr. Fred B. Johnston of San Antonio, Tex., chief of staff to Emperor Simmons who returned with the emperor early Thursday from Birmingham, also issued a signed statement. He explained his sudden departure from Atlanta on Tuesday night after he had sworn out re-arrest warrants for Dr. Evans, Brown, Harwood, H. K. Ramsey, and T. J. McKinnon, Klan officials, by saying:

"I had what I considered a reliable tip that certain parties were taking the midnight train for Birmingham with the avowed intention of putting the colonel out of the way via the murder route."

Dry League Backs Coolidge Against Pinchot's Attack

Tuesday's Elections Have Local Character And Fail To Show National Political Tendency

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1923 by The Post Pub. Co.
Washington—Straws which show which way the national winds of politics may be blowing are too few today to draw any worthwhile conclusions and while the headquarters of both the major parties profess to find satisfaction in what has happened, there are only a few things significant in Tuesday's elections.

First, the expectation of the "dry" forces that New York state would punish the Democrats for repealing the state enforcement law on prohibition was to some extent fulfilled as the Democrats lost seven members and the Republicans retained control.

Second, the "wet" sentiment showed itself as strong as ever in the state of Maryland where Governor Ritchie was re-elected by an overwhelming majority. Both candidates were "wet" but Mr. Ritchie was wet enough to earn the endorsement of the Association Opposed to the Prohibition Amendment.

Third, Kentucky came back into the Democratic fold by turning out its Republican governor, James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for the presidency in 1920, campaigned actively in Kentucky this year and the final vote showed that the state went Democratic by an even greater vote than it cast in 1920.

Fourth, the special elections to congress were about a stand-off, neither party making any substantial headway and the contests were so local in character that national significance can hardly be attached to them.

PINCHOT BOOM PUNCTURED
Far more important, however in the realm of national politics Tuesday than any election that was held was the puncturing of Governor Gifford Pinchot's boom for the Republican presidential nomination. He had started out to make an issue of prohibition, contending that President Coolidge's Secretary Mellon were not enforcing the Volstead law as effectively as they could. For several days, Mr. Pinchot's charges have been occupying Washington's attention, particularly the statement that Secretary Mellon was obstructing enforcement of the law. Mr. Mellon hails from Pennsylvania and will have a good deal to say about the delegation from the Keystone state to the national convention.

Now comes Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league and the acknowledged leader of the "dry" forces in America, with a statement endorsing not only President Coolidge's efforts to enforce prohibition but putting the stamp of approval on Secretary Mellon too. Mr. Wheeler says if the states will only do as much as the federal government has done, all will be well. This is interpreted as meaning that even if Governor Pinchot himself would use his state power he would get better results in Pennsylvania.

OHIO MENTOR RAPS SYSTEM OF COLLEGES

Dean Of Education Says University Has Failed In Chief Purpose

By Associated Press
Milwaukee—The educational teaching craft as it is steered in state universities was raked fore and aft by the verbal broadsides of George Arps, dean of the college of education, Ohio State university, in an address Thursday before the opening session of the Wisconsin Teachers' association in its seventeenth annual session here.

"Certain it is that the university has failed signally in professionalizing education. It has failed to contribute its quota of desirably trained teachers and to assist in creating an acceptable social status for the rank and file teacher," declared Mr. Arps. "In general the state university as the top end of the state's system of public schools has, with respect to the needs of these schools, not only failed in its opportunity but has neglected a duty for which it should be held answerable to the public school teaching staff of the state and to the fathers and mothers who believe in the public schools and who look to the state university for assistance not only in educating boys and girls in the professions, but who desire indirect assistance in educating their children of elementary and secondary school age.

Mr. Arps said as a rule the universities do not cooperate with normal schools or teachers colleges but hold themselves aloof and endanger the whole system by not paying enough attention to the education of future teachers. He urged the establishment of a teachers' college within the university.

ON TRIAL THURSDAY
Oklahoma City—Denied federal intervention by which he attempted to halt the impeachment proceedings against him, Governor J. C. Walton will go to trial Thursday before the senate court of impeachment on 22 charges of official misconduct.

The governor is determined to make another bid for government mediation on the grounds that he will not be given a fair trial because the state legislature completed beforehand with the Ku Klux Klan to remove him from office but his opponents in the action considered unlikely that it will meet with any more success than the first attempt.

REUTER TAKES BACK CHARGES AGAINST PRIM

Mayor Makes Public Retraction Of Accusations Against

With the City Treasurer about this matter, but had made some investigation of the City records, personally. I had now that I was mistaken and that this money had in fact been turned over to the City of Appleton by Mr. Prim and I feel that in my public remarks I have done him an injustice, which I desire at this time to correct so that no reflection or discredit concerning this transaction shall be cast upon Mr. Prim in any way.

HEATED DISCUSSION

At the Sept. 5 meeting the mayor declared that he had evidence which indicated that Chief Prim had received money from Outagamie for police services and that no accounting had been made with the city. He declared that the chief had received two checks, aggregating $300.00, and he could find no record in the office of the city treasurer that this money had been paid to the city and that the checks bore the endorsement of George T. Prim. A heated discussion followed the charges. The chief charged the mayor to prove that he had not received in every dollar that rightfully belonged to the city. Alderman A. W. Laak's advised the mayor that if he had evidence that the chief was in wrong to suspend him and to file charges with the police and fire board, and that an open council meeting was not the place to make the accusations. The discussion was continued at the council meeting when Chief Prim had said that Chief Prim had failed to pay the city money that had been received from the county. It developed that the money had gone into the police pension fund, as is required by law. It also developed later that the checks made payable to the chief bore the endorsement of the city treasurer as well as the endorsement of Mr. Prim. The matter has since been referred to a public retraction from the mayor and threatened to institute suit charging slander if the mayor refused. Depositions were obtained from aldermen who had heard the charges proof was secured that the money Prim was accused of withholding had actually been deposited to the credit of the proper funds by the city treasurer. It was reported that the chief was prepared to institute suit against the mayor consented to make the retraction.

LEGION WILL SEND SPEAKERS TO SCHOOLS

Onsey Johnston Post Making Plans For Observing National Education Week

A corps of speakers which will be available to all the Appleton schools during National Education week, Nov. 12 to 24, has been provided by the Onsey Johnston post of the American Legion in keeping with its plans for that week. The legion is joining with the principals of the schools in urging the people to visit the schools during the week and to see what the children are doing. The teachers prefer that the parents come to visit a regular school program rather than to visit one that has been especially prepared for them.

In addition to the program in the schools, the legion has planned an Americanization program for the city's new citizens who will be given their citizenship papers on Nov. 15. A more elaborate program has been prepared than the first which the legion sponsored. All organizations in the city have been urged to have representatives at the ceremony when the citizens are given their papers. The citizenship classes of the high school have also been asked to be present to welcome these people to American citizenship.

C. OF C. GUIDES PLAN FOR COST EFFICIENCY

Chamber of commerce members here are to have the benefit of the data obtained at the conference on uniform cost accounting conducted in Chicago Oct. 25 by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. A complete report is being prepared for distribution.

The coming report will contain explanations of the cost systems used by several of the large industries of the country.

Two Meetings On First Day Of Merchandise Institute

Noted Business Doctor To Meet Salespeople And Executives

The first meetings of a series of "Institute of Merchandising" lectures will be held next Monday evening at the vocational school and at a noonday luncheon lecture in the Conway hotel. These meetings are of interest to all Appleton people, especially merchants, sales persons and business men. The object of the institute is to determine what can be done to improve retail service in Appleton by more efficient merchandising and reducing selling costs. James W. Fisk, merchandising counsel of The Milwaukee Journal will conduct the meetings.

Thinker, author and a "Doctor of Sick Business" James W. Fisk has earned the title of Business Builder. Mr. Fisk has risen rapidly from a clerk in a small store in the northern part of Wisconsin to merchandising manager of leading retail institutions throughout the country. He has gained prominence everywhere, perhaps unequalled in his profession by any other authority. "Cut and dried" theoretical talks are not delivered by Mr. Fisk. His analyses are adapted to business conditions as they exist in the community in which he is working.

Mr. Fisk's experience is based on a long list of responsible positions. Briefly a few of them are: Director of selling service, Lord & Taylor, New York; merchandising counsel of J. L. Hudson company, Detroit; manager retail service, Associated Advertising Clubs of the world. During his career as business lecturer at the Universities of Wisconsin, Columbia, Minnesota, Illinois and Pennsylvania, Mr. Fisk prepared advertising courses and business text books. He is author of the text "Retail Selling," now being used by large stores and colleges.

Mr. Fisk's work on the Milwaukee Journal staff as an expert in merchandising is bringing greater success to Milwaukee merchants. It is through the courtesy of The Milwaukee Journal that the Appleton Post-Crescent and the Retail Division of the Chamber of Commerce under whose auspices these meetings are held, were enabled to secure Mr. Fisk. The first evening talk will be on "The Science of Salesmanship." Practical methods will be revealed that have successfully increased individual sales elsewhere. Every point of the sale will be covered in a clear and concise manner. Simplified suggestions will be brought forth that can be put into practice immediately. Another practical talk will be given.

Man 74 Years Old Is "Rejuvenated" In 3 Weeks Without Gland Operation

Kansas Contractor Tells of Wonderful Results Obtained in Test of New Scientific Discovery.

Thomas J. Glascock, 74, well-known Kansas contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered "Bluebird Pearl's" compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland restorants" as an invigorator and revitalizer. "I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says: "Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'younger' again."

Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. V. Wood of New Orleans, past 50 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to an good, healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 25. I am as energetic as ever and as at 25 my strength is better than for years. I would not take $5,000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, not rated as the strongest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and blood vessels, it brings gratifying benefits in a few days, according to thousands who have tested it.

"It is wonderful," writes a resident of Hollister, Cal., "in less than 24 hours you can feel it does the work. It makes me feel young as a young man. I am more than happy and glad I tried it." Another Californian says: "The compound is a world's wonder. I feel like I was about 25 and here I am nearly 60!"

STEFANSSON HERE FOR LECTURE IN CHAPEL TONIGHT

Large Crowd Is Assured Noted Explorer Who Will Discuss His Work

Appleton is host today to a noted man.

The city's distinguished visitor is Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who speaks at 8:15 in Lawrence Memorial chapel on "The Friendly Arctic." This hero of polar expeditions comes here at invitation of Appleton Chamber of Commerce, and the public is urged by Secretary Hugh G. Corbett to give him a royal reception.

Stefansson is making a tour of a number of cities of the middlewest telling first hand a story of adventure, exploration and scientific study. His lecture will be educational, witty and woven with thrills. He is a man of educational talent and writing ability as well as an accomplished explorer.

Tickets have been selling quite rapidly for the lecture, and those who have not purchased may obtain them at the chapel box office. No seats are to be reserved, so purchase at that time will assure an equal chance with early buyers for choice location in the auditorium.

KIMBERLY WOMAN GIVEN PENSION OF $30 A MONTH

Among the Wisconsin persons who this week have been granted a pension according to an announcement of the United States commission of pensions at Washington, D. C., is Mrs. Fanny Lochschmidt of Kimberly, who will receive $30 a month. Pensions of ten other Wisconsin residents were announced.

	DOUBLE-FACED Number	List Price
Memory's Garden (G. Demis-L. Drees) Frances Alda	946	$1.50
Coming Home (Earlley-Wilcox-Wilcox) Frances Alda
If there is a spark of sentiment in your composition, these songs will bid it live and glow.
Mazurka (Chopin) Fritz Kreisler	947	1.50
Melodie (Paderewski-Kreisler) Fritz Kreisler
Time is coupling more closely together in the history of Polish music, the names of Chopin and Paderewski.
Requiem—Confutatis maledictis (From the Accused Call Me Tomb) (Verdi) In Latin José Mardones	6420	2.00
Stabat Mater—Pro Peccatis (For His People Unending) (Rossini) In Latin José Mardones
These bass numbers have rolled nobly, in their time, through many a vast cathedral.
Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses John McCormack	961	1.50
Wonderful One John McCormack
These are popular waltz songs, and both of them love-songs.

Melodious Instrumental

Vision of Salome—Waltz (Piano-accordion Solo) Pietro	19133	.75
Kiss of Spring—Waltz (Piano-accordion Solo) Pietro Joyce's "Vision of Salome" has become a classic among dance-waltzes. Combined here with Rolfe's "Kiss of Spring."

Negro Spirituals

Hush, Somebody's Calling My Name Bethel Jubilee Quartet under the direction of Rev. T. H. Wiseman	19119	.75
You Must Come In at the Door Bethel Jubilee Quartet
The power of the American negro to "raise a spiritual" is one of the wonders of music. Here are two good examples.

Light Vocal Selections

Struttin' Jim Miss Patricola with The Virginians	19169	.75
Nobody Else Can Love Me Like My Old Tomato Can Billy Murray
This record affords a funny combination of Negro and Irish dialect songs.

Dance Records

Sittin' in a Corner—Fox Trot Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra	19161	.75
Maggie! "Yes Ma'am!"—Fox Trot Manhattan Merry-makers
"Maggie" (remember her?) introduces the Manhattan Merry-makers under Hugo Frey.
Little Butterfly—Fox Trot ("Music Box Review") Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra	19162	.75
So This is Love!—Waltz ("Little Miss Bluebird") The Ironbadows
These are fine examples of the most modern kind of dance-orchestral scoring, and they "dance easily."
Nobody But You—Fox Trot Brooke Johns and His Orchestra	19163	.75
Love, My Heart is Calling You—Fox Trot Manhattan Merry-makers
Fox-trotters will like these two numbers. You will find the new orchestra has its own style.

ENFORCE ARTERIAL HIGHWAY ORDINANCE

The arterial highway system was established in Appleton because it was believed it would lessen the hazards of automobile driving and would expedite traffic on through streets. It was pointed out when the plan was adopted that an arterial highway system unenforced is a greater hazard than no system at all;
that drivers on arterial highways, confident that they have the right-of-way over traffic coming out the street, will be less cautious when they pass street intersections and serious accidents might result unless every autoist comes to a full stop before he drives on an arterial street.

Although the arterial system was established here more than a month ago and drivers have had ample opportunity to become accustomed to it, very little has been done to enforce the ordinance. The arterial system is worthless if only a majority of drivers comply with the ordinance.
The remaining minority who neglect or refuse to stop their cars are a greater menace to the drivers on arterial highways than all the cars were before arterial highway signs were set up.

It is time the arterial system here be considered more than just "another law." It either should be enforced or stricken out. Drivers have been warned often enough so they cannot plead ignorance of the law if they are arrested.

SOMETHING TO SHAKE US UP

Manitowoc is the center of the aluminum goods manufacturing industry of the United States. People of Wisconsin are familiar with the magnitude and strength of that industry. We have had brought to our personal attention a letter written to the Aluminum Goods Manufacturing company of Manitowoc by the Grand Haven (Michigan) Chamber of Commerce, from which we quote:

If it could be demonstrated to you that transportation, labor, and material supplies were equal to or better than you now have, and that your taxes would be one-tenth of their present total, would you consider moving your plant to Grand Haven, Michigan?

Under the tax conditions of Wisconsin, Nash Motors, in 1922 paid $147,112. If the firm been paying out the present rate in Grand Haven, its taxes would have been $18,800—ten to one in the case of Nash Motors. How would it have been in your case?

This community is not making a bid for a firm of that magnitude. But we are in excellent shape to take in about five smaller manufacturers and you are one of the companies we want.
Certainly it must be a strong thing which holds any industry in Wisconsin, under present conditions.
These tax-home and family will hold some, but not all. A few of you more courageous ones are going to be turning wheels in Grand Haven before 1924 rolls in.

Michigan has been conservative in matters of taxation, especially in relation to taxing industries. You probably noticed that the corporation franchise tax in Michigan was REDUCED from 2 1/2 to 2% on the last session of the legislature. While the average increase by states in the value of manufactured products during the last ten years, was 13 per cent, Michigan's increase was 2 1/2 per cent. . . .
You will find it interesting to check over our tax rates and general situation with us. We'll send a committee to see you if occasion warrants. Let us hear from you.

We do not know what the attitude of the Aluminum Goods Manufacturing company is toward this proposition. We do know, however, that appeals of this kind which are coming into Wisconsin constantly from Michigan and surrounding states will find receptive lodgment, and that some of our manufacturing institutions will be taken away from us by these competitive states. The fact is that quite a number of them have already moved to other states, and many have built branch factories elsewhere which would have been located in Wisconsin but for unfaorable legislation, and the attacks of politicians. A few have closed their doors because of inability to operate profitably in this state, and taxation and political hostility were factors in making the industry unprofitable.

We cannot vouch for the accuracy of the statements made in the letter above quoted to the Aluminum Goods Manufacturing company, but we do know that there is a rank and wholly unjustifiable discrimination against manufacturing in Wisconsin, as compared with other states.
Taxes in some instances are at least two or three times as much. We have the law passed by the last legislature attempting to throw the books and private information of manufacturing companies open to public inspection, which is one of the most vicious and unjust legislative acts ever enacted. While we do not believe this law will hold water in the extremes to which it has gone, or is interpreted by the state tax commission, nevertheless its character and purpose are not lost upon those who have investments in Wisconsin and to whom we must look for further investments if the state is to progress industrially.

What has all this tirade against and persecution of Wisconsin manufacture by the politicians who are running state affairs gained for Wisconsin? Has it helped a single farmer or a single laborer? Has it helped reduce anybody's taxes? Has it improved the prosperity of the state? Is it a gain for Wisconsin to have manufacturing slipping and the state losing industrial rank, while neighboring states are forging rapidly ahead? Are all the politicians put together down at Madison worth a single industry like the aluminum goods industry, which has contributed so much to the prosperity and reputation of Wisconsin?

Every intelligent farmer and every intelligent workingman knows that a blow at manufacture is a blow at their prosperity and well being. They know that in this period of standardization, intense competition and high operative costs it is a problem with the average manufacturing plant to make even a fair profit.
They know that the problems of manufacturing in many lines are quite as acute as the problems of agriculture. They know how few new industries are created and how few survive. In some of even the smaller cities in Wisconsin hundreds of thousands of dollars have been sunk and lost in manufacturing ventures in the last few years. There isn't a politician in Wisconsin who is derating industry and over-burdening it with oppressive taxation and annoying legislation that knows the first thing about manufacturing or how to make a business of any importance successful. Yet we have listened to their harangues, their attacks upon the commercial and industrial stability of Wisconsin and their empty and absurd promises. The letter written by the Grand Haven Chamber of Commerce to the Aluminum Goods Manufacturing company of Manitowoc is what is going on in the world of reality. It ought to shake our senses up as to what is going on about us in the world of political chicanery and bunk.

TODAY'S POEM

By Bertin Braley

THE CALL OF THE WILD

A little hut in the wilderness
Is something I'd like to own.
A shelter from worry and toil and stress
Where a fellow could be alone.
Except, perhaps, for a cook and maid
And a butler and chauffeur too.
To keep the house and to give some aid
In doing the things to do.

A little hut in the wilderness
Though not out there so far
That you couldn't drive in an hour or less
To town in a motor car.
A hut of a dozen rooms or so,
A shack that is rough and plain,
Though well equipped in a way, you know,
For parties I'd entertain.

A little hut in the wilderness
By a lake that is blue and clear,
With a rafting launch or two, I guess.
And a summer hotel quite near.
A hut with plumbing, electric light,
A radio, hardwood floors,
And there, a simple contented wight,
I'd dwell in the Great Outdoors.
(Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

The powers want to reduce Germany's debt, which the only way to keep her from owing so much.

Reducing Germany's Debt Makes that much less the allies lose.

How can Germany pay? The idea is foolish. She needs all her money to start internal trouble.

Less movies will be made. It is a good plan.
Show the same films instead of just the same plots.

Movie business is slacking up because people have seen them all.

Movie stars are going to the speaking stage. This is too bad. Many will have to learn English.

Other improvements are noticed. The derby hat is passing. Old ones will make nice flower pots.

taining to health. Writer's names are never

PREVENTION OF PILES

As I took occasion to say in my last conference about varicose veins, it is my faithful practice to refrain from publishing the symptoms, for I have a suspicion that too many people are already equiv-ocated with too many symptoms and it is no part of a health teacher's work to add to the popular burden.

Still and all, in order to make my stuff here really interesting as well as amusing, I've got to flirt with the symptoms a little, not that I mean to present the reader with the complete makings of a case, but merely to keep him going along with us in the hope that I may unwittingly tell something sometimes that is good for something. One has got to sort of dangle some symptoms before the reader's eyes now and then to keep up that hopeful expectation.

In the quiescent interval between "attacks" of piles, a sensation of fullness and distension is commonly felt by the subject, as though from a foreign body or retained fecal mass. This often leads to ill-advised self-doing with cathartics or to the use of enemas, both of which tend to increase the congestion or distension of the affected veins and hence to aggravate the trouble. One at all subject to piles can scarcely do himself a greater injury than to take regularly or frequently a laxative tablet or
"river pill" containing aloes or similar purgative ingredients. Indeed, the habitual use of such physics must be reckoned a common contributing cause of piles.

The sense of fullness or discomfort itself, and the irritation produced by the constant resort to physics, combine in many instances to convince the victim of internal or "blind" piles that he or she is suffering from some other pelvic disorder, many women, more particularly, to the conclusion that they have some disorder peculiar to sex.

The prevention of piles of course means avoiding the causative conditions I have explained in this and preceding discussions of varicose veins.
Perhaps one of the most important prophylactic precautions one subject to varicose hemorrhoidal veins can take against "attacks" of piles is a careful toilet of the perineal region washing with soap and water and rinsing with cool water and careful drying after every evacuation, and regularly each night.

The horizontal posture, or better, a posture which enables the blood to run down hill in the hemorrhoidal veins, diminishes the distension. Sedentary folk derive benefit from rolling a few somersaults night and morning or doing a head stand or assuming the knee chest posture for a few minutes or just lying with the hips higher than the shoulders.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Gelatine
A contends that gelatine is very nutritious and adds greatly to the food value of ice cream. B contends that gelatine has no food value and is used in making ice cream merely as a binder. Who is right?—R. L.

Answer:—Gelatine probably has some food value that is, undergoes oxidation and furnishes energy in the body. Cornstarch, gelatine, glucose and other additives legally permissible in "ice cream" are there not because they have nutritive value but because they are all sorts of give their smooth body or consistence which is public likes.

Flaxseed or Linseed
Some one asked you about flaxseed or linseed for constipation. Which is it you suggested and how should it be used?—Mrs. C. B. J.

Answer:—They are the same thing. From a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful of the ground seeds may be washed down with water, once or twice daily. This accomplishes satisfactorily the purpose for which expensive preparations like agar are much used nowadays—mild stimulation of paris-tal (wave movements in the alimentary tube).

Not On Speaking Terms With Poker

My thanks to "Ann Admirer" for

Source Of Paris
Art Quarter's
Name Uncertain

(From Excelsior, Paris.)

Montmartre.
A strange halo surrounds this name,
by which the quarter of Paris' artists is known throughout the world. Ambitious, gay and light-hearted people crowd into the tiny studios or in the restaurants of Montmartre and give the entire district its Bohemian atmosphere.

Montmartre!

Where does the name come from?
There are three sources for it, each one of which is ardently defended by a group of etymologists. During the Roman period of Paris, there stood a temple on the hill of Montmartre, which was dedicated to the god of wars, Mars, and was approximately situated on the spot where now the square of Tertre is located. In Latin, then, one would have said Mons Mar-tis. This is but one of the three hypotheses.

Another temple, that of the god
Mercury, stood about the same time, at the place where nowadays one finds the Moulin de la Galette; the existence of this sanctuary permitted one to talk in Latin of Mons Mercurii. Indeed, one finds in chronicle of the sixteenth century the term
"in monte Mercurii." The alteration of the name in the course of centuries would have made of Mons Mercurii, first Mont Merce, then Mont Merre, and finally Montmartre.
A third explanation which seems more acceptable still, is the following:
It is possible that Saint Denis and his companions became martyrs on Montmartre. One found on the old Montmartre walls, thought not the tomb of the saint, yet the remains of a tomb chamber which was consecrated to him. Montmartre would then be derived from Mons Martyrum, which means mountain of martyrs.
It is, moreover, an established fact that Martre, Margrals and Martrois are names given in several other villages to squares or streets to recall the fact that executions took place there.
During the great French revolution, Montmartre was in a deplorable fashion "revolutionized" to honor a republican leader one called it Mont Marat instead of Montmartre.

Q. Who rightfully owns a prescription—the patient or the druggist? R. L.

A. The Bureau of Chemistry says that it has never been legally decided whether a druggist or a patient should have possession of the prescription. Most druggists do not object to supplying the patient with a copy of it.

Q. Give derivation and meaning of the word, "nomenclature." C. C. P.

A. The word "nomenclature" is derived from a Greek word meaning "the thing perceived," which in turn is a derivation of the verb "to perceive" and the noun "mind." Murray's English Dictionary says that the word was introduced by Immanuel Kant in contrast to the word "phenomenon."

Q. How long was Paul Revere's famous ride? W. P. B.

A. The Massachusetts Historical Society says that the ride is estimated as having been about ten miles.

Q. How many ounces of wool are there in the average man's suit? C. S. Y.

A. To manufacture a suit of man's clothing requires about sixty-two ounces of wool, or a little less than four pounds.

Q. Is an enlisted man supposed to salute a commissioned officer who is not in uniform? J. E. D.

A. If the enlisted man recognizes the officer, even though the latter is out of uniform, he must salute him.

Q. Name the leading castes in India. L. O. F.

A. There are four great castes in India. They are: the Brahmins, or priests; the military caste; the vaisyas or husbandmen, consisting of most of the industrial workers; and finally, the serfs, who till the soil.

Q. Into how many zones is standard time divided in the United States? L. J. McE.

A. It is divided into four zones: eastern, central, mountain and Pacific. There is three hours difference in time between New York and San Francisco. When it is noon in New York, it is eleven A. M. in the central zone, ten A. M. in the mountain zone, and nine A. M. in the Pacific zone.

Q. Why is the lion referred to as the "king of beasts." E. B. S.

A. The Department of Agriculture says that this title was given to the lion because its bravery is unsurpassed and because there is no other animal that can successfully meet it in combat.

Q. What expense are the Indians to the Government? S. L. J.

A. The Office of Indian Affairs says that the Indians are not considered an expense to the Government. The annual appropriations made for the Indians are more than offset by the value of the vast areas of land that have been ceded to the United States by them.

Q. Who made a bequest lately for a home for vaudeville artists? M. N.

A. Percy G. Williams, a vaudeville producer who died recently, provided in his will that the bulk of his fortune of more than $5,000,000 should be used "to endow and maintain a home for those who, through age, poverty or infirmity, have been crowded out of the profession."

Q. What is meant by the term "Manassa Mauler" as applied to Jack Dempsey? F. C. F.

A. Jack Dempsey was born in Manassa, Colo., and "maul" means a heavy blow, consequently the term "Manassa Mauler" is not inappropiate for such a prize fighter as Dempsey.

Q. How are the paper water buckets made that are used by railroads? D. R.

A. These buckets are usually made from wood fiber reduced to a pulp mixed with a suitable binder which is a water-resistant glue and molded to proper shape. Such buckets are also sometimes made from paper mache which is composed of old papers macerated to pulp and molded in the manner described.

Q. Why did the Egyptians use beetles as settings for jewelry? I. C.

A. The scarab, a beetle, was regarded in Egypt as a symbol of immortality, and it was therefore placed on mummies as a sign of the resurrection. It was also a symbol of the sun god, and was widely used as a talisman by the Egyptians. Gem stones cut with the markings of the beetle are also known as scarabs and were used as talismans.

WANT AD IS ENOUGH
New Orleans, La. — When a state wants a canal dug there is agitation for and against the project, legislators orate, a bond issue is advanced, and more bullheaded given to its worth than it is.

Edward A. McIlhenny, well known manufacturer and sportsman, however, does it more simply. He wanted a canal 107 miles long, dug on a 129,600-acre tract he bought recently. So he put a simple want ad for bidders in a few southern newspapers.

That was all, and brought him bids from Chicago, Cleveland, Boston and Philadelphia, besides all parts of the south.

While the canal is being dredged, McIlhenny is planning to devote his new tract as a game preserve—his hobby. He expects to set aside 10,000 acres for public use.

Tickets Move Rapidly For Rainbow Dance

The ticket sale for the Armistice dance to be given by the Appleton Rainbow war veterans in Armory G Friday night is meeting with good response, of which Robert Merkel is chairman. Has been notified to meet in the armory Thursday evening. It is intended to build the building in a way that has not been equaled before. The Rainbow chapter hopes to raise enough money by the dance to wipe out the deficit that was incurred in entertaining General Gouraud in Appleton last summer. Gib Horv's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the dance.

PARTIES

Franklin School Social club will give its regular dancing party at the Franklin school. The affair is for members and friends.

Miss Vera Rademacher entertained a number of friends at her home, 521 North-Division-st., Wednesday evening. The party was given by Miss Ruth Lacey, Miss Cecile Schmitz, Mrs. H. Kenitz and Miss Amanda Reier.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy were surprised in their home in Union St. last evening by a group of friends. Games and music furnished entertainment. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murphy and daughter Dorothy of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stadler of Appleton, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dudek and family of Pittsfield, Miss Gwendolyn Robinson, William Traxler and Anton Traxler of Menasha.

A class of more than a dozen candidates was initiated at a meeting of the Elks Wednesday evening. It was the first initiation since the new lodge rooms were redecorated and there was a large attendance. The new ritual was used for the first time. The ceremony was followed by a lunch. New London members were well represented.

The Ladies of the Evangelical Church will have a Food Sale, Saturday, Nov. 10, at Ang. Brandt Co.

Dressed Ducks, delivered. Low prices. Phone 1339R.

Never Too Late For Picnic, H.S. Girls Believe

If any one doubts that November is as good a month as July for a picnic, he should wait near Albia park after 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon to see the big group of girls from the Girls Athletic association of Appleton high school enjoy themselves at a winter picnic. There is no reason at all why one month is not as good as another for picnics just so long as you do not freeze to death or as to the philosophy behind this affair for more members of the association have signed up to go than have attended any previous picnic.

Because it gets dark so early in the evening, the girls will go directly from the high school to the park to get their cooking fires burning. When the preparations for supper are well underway they will have another hike along the river, returning in time to eat.

St. Elizabeth Club Open Card Party Saturday

The second open card party given this season by St. Elizabeth club will be held at 2:45 Saturday afternoon in the hall. The proceeds will be added to the free bed fund. Mrs. E. W. Douglas, Mrs. Charles Emden, Mrs. O. N. Zepherin, Mrs. Joseph Schweitzer, Mrs. Thomas Long, Mrs. Henry Reuter and Mrs. L. Schreier will be hostesses. Prizes will be awarded at bridge and schafkopf.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Wulbur Grant was elected president of the Young Home Builders club of St. Paul's Lutheran church at its monthly meeting held at the home of Miss Alvina Behnke, 1058 Harris-st. The evening was devoted to sewing. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Serena Sonntag, 514 Bateman-st.

The Catholic Order of Foresters and Holy Name society of St. Mary church will approach communion at St. Mary church at 7:30 Sunday morning.

St. Paul Lutheran Missionary society met Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Alvina Behnke, 1058 Harris-st. The evening was devoted to sewing. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Serena Sonntag, 514 Bateman-st.

A special meeting of the Women's auxiliary of All Saints church will be held at the rectory at 2:30 Friday afternoon. Mrs. Welton, diocesan secretary of box work, will address the meeting on the importance of the work in supplying boxes for missionaries.

Over the Tea Cups club will meet at 2:45 Friday afternoon. Mrs. F. S. Bradford will be hostess to the club at her home, 584 Prospect-st.

A class of candidates was initiated into the Elks Wednesday evening. A social hour followed the business session.

The sports council of Appleton women's club will elect its officers and standing committees at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock Friday evening. The business meeting will follow the supper served by members of the council. This supper like all others served at the clubhouse will be given to the members at the cost of the food.

WEDDINGS

Mrs. Esther Schmitz-Ross of Greenfield, and Carl Reitz of Fond du Lac, were married at noon Wednesday at the home of the bride at Crescent. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leonard Kasper, pastor of Greenfield Lutheran church. The attendants were Robert Reitz of Fremont, brother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Walter Schreier of Fond du Lac. A reception was held after the ceremony for immediate relatives, after which the couple left on a trip to Milwaukee. They will reside on Mr. Reitz's farm in town of Forest, Fond du Lac.

Miss Emma Drumm and Otto Wittke were married at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in St. Paul Parsonage. The Rev. T. J. Sauer performed the ceremony.

George A. Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider, 679 Kernan-ave, and Marjorie Holcomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holcomb of Peshtigo, were married at Menominee, Mich., on Monday. After a wedding trip to the copper regions and Peshtigo, the couple will live with Mr. Schneider's parents.

Graveure In New Success In Chicago

Artist Who Sings Here Friday Night Wins Applause In Chicago Concert

According to Edward Moore, the Chicago Tribune critic, Louis Gravenure's audience at the Studebaker theatre last Sunday thought that the baritone could do no wrong and called him back repeatedly for repetitions and extras. Mr. Gravenure opens the Community Artist course at Lawrence Memorial chapel on Friday evening. Last Year Mr. Gravenure was generous with his encore numbers which were among the best things that he sang.

According to Carl J. Waterman, who is in charge of the seat sale, the single admission tickets for Gravenure and for the Chicago orchestra have been in great demand. The season ticket sale was larger than usual. Because of the great capacity of Lawrence Memorial chapel for artist numbers, it will be possible to secure many good seats on Friday.

On of the things which makes the most favorable impression on a Gravenure audience is that a large portion of the program is in English. Following is the program he will sing on Friday evening.

Star of Eve (Tannhauser).....Wagner

Girls' Leaders Form Classes At First Meeting

Girl scout and camp fire activities in Appleton were given a great impetus at Appleton Women's clubhouse on Wednesday evening when more than 20 leaders of groups met to organize their leaders' classes and to have their first joint meeting. Leaders have been secured for all the groups of girls which wish to organize in the city. The leaders include several high and grade school teachers and college girls.

The December meeting of Appleton Women's club has been given to the two organizations which will provide the program. Miss Ann Hyman, who is the director of the seventh district Girl Scouts will be the special speaker for the occasion. The local groups will put on a demonstration at the meeting.

CARD PARTIES

A card party will be given Friday night by the Friendship-Pressure club. The party will be held in Trades and Labor Council hall.

Only Two Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Otto Poirin, 935 Onondaga-st. Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in sewing.

Officials of Forester Home association and their wives will entertain Foresters and their families and friends at a card party at Forester home on Friday evening. Prizes will be awarded at bridge and schafkopf.

LETTER FROM MRS. JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON TO KARL WHITNEY

MY DEAR BOY: It is awfully great of you to volunteer to go over to London sooner than you expected. I think Alice will feel more like staying if she has some one of the home folks with her, and you, my dear Karl, have been so much with us from your childhood until now that I never think of my family without including you.

I know you loved Leslie like a brother and you have always been the best of big brothers to me. I do not know what rather of the girls would have done without you, having no brothers of their own. Leslie is getting along very slowly. I get much discouraged at times. She seems to be so unhappy at the loss of her baby. In fact, I think that what disturbs her brain more than anything else, for the surgical operation was a great success. You see, she is delicious most of the time.

Foot Jack has been unable to do anything since the accident and he has grown haggard and thin. He is very anxious to get away on some important business with his friend, Sydney Carter. I have tried to persuade him to go but he insists that he will not leave Leslie until she is perfectly well, whatever happens.

I, of course, shall stay here until my girl is able to sit up. We have taken a furnished apartment on the other side of the hall where the two nurses and I live. Mr. Hamilton installed us with my cook and housemaid from home before he left me here.

Jack takes his meals with us and that leaves his maid with nothing to do except take care of Leslie's apartment.

I do not think I ever was so grateful for money as I am now when because I have it in unlimited quantity, I can have every possible thing that finite mind can compass. I think I would grow mad to sit here and see my daughter in need of something that I could not give her.

I cannot buy health outright for Leslie but I can make her illness more bearable and I can make sure that everything is being done to bring her back to that health which we who love her have lost.

Money may be the root of all evil, but it grows the tree from which we pick much good. While I know that money cannot buy the things we care for most, I have found out that it makes it possible to mitigate much pain. It may not always bring us the good of life, but it always helps us to bear the ill of life.

My boy, I am writing you a sermon but it is because I know that you have much money and I want you to appreciate not only its quantity but the quality of blessings which you may receive from it and the blessings you may confer.

I will write you again in a few days. If I am not home before you start abroad, will you come and see me here?

Sincerely,
ALICE HAMILTON.

Window Garden Ideas

TULIP NEEDS CARE The gorgeous tulip is always a delight in the winter garden. The great danger with tulips lies in bringing the bulbs too soon from the cellar. Ten to 12 weeks in the dark are required for the formation of the tulip roots.

The crocus makes a charming indoor garden. It must be grown cool. It will not thrive in a very warm room. The crocus looks best when planted in a shallow pan—six to eight bulbs in a five-inch pan.

The crocuses should be potted closely—at least 12 bulbs in a four-inch pot, with the tops close to the soil and put in a sunny window as soon as planted.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless pipe system the remedy is recognized by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kimer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it gives excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

Badger School Children To Give Playlet

Young people of Badger district school will give a play entitled "Elizabeth's Young Man" at the schoolhouse Friday evening. A program consisting of singing, reading and ballet dancing also will be presented. Proceeds of the box social, which follows the entertainment, will be turned over to the Martha Washington club to be used to buy phonograph records for the school.

Adventures Of The Twins

What Happened To Paul Pry "Ding, dong, ding dong" went the school bell in Pee Wee Land. Nancy and Nick heard it the minute they turned the corner.

"Good-bye, what's that for, do you s'pose?" cried Nancy. "There's no school now. This is vacation." "Hurry up!" said Nick, starting to run. "Maybe there's a fire."

But there wasn't any more fire than there is in the refrigerator, my dear. However, there was quite as much excitement as if there had been forty fires.

King Shookums was rushing about and every Pee Wee was rushing about and looking in all the houses and down all the holes and up all the bushes and weeds and everywhere.

The Twins knew the trouble at once. "Somebody's lost. I'll bet you anything," said Nancy. And that's what it was. Little Paul Pry Pee Wee was gone.

"What's everybody making such a fuss about?" demanded Nick. "You don't sing bells when the other Pee Wees are lost?"

"Oh, but that's different," declared Mrs. Pry, Paul's mother. "They're not my Paul. He's the most inquisitive boy in Pee Wee Land and I never get a minute's peace with him poking around. I'm sure he's down the well, or something. Oh, my poor Polly Pry Pee Wee!"

"We'll help hunt," said Nancy. "We have good luck finding things, so don't worry." We'll get him. Come on, Nick.

The Twins looked everywhere, and were just about to give up when they passed Farmer Brown's mouse trap near the out-barn. Then they heard a faint voice calling.

"Goodness alive! There's somebody in the mouse trap," said Nancy. "Peep in, Nick, but be careful."

So Nick stuck in his head. "Hello! Hello. Paul Pry Pee Wee," Nancy heard him say. "How did you get here?"

"I wanted to see how it worked," answered the Pee Wee boy faintly. "I hardly touched it at all when it snapped down on my foot. I can't move."

The Twins worked like tailors and by 'n' by Paul Pry was set free. "Oh, thank you," he cried, limping.

Household Suggestions

DISCOLORED NICKEL If your nickel pans become discolored, clean them by rubbing with a paste of washing or a fine scourer.

DISH TOWELS Cheese-cloth, cut into yard lengths, makes very good towels for drying cups or fine china.

IRONING LACE Instead of ironing lace, it is more satisfactory to stretch it while wet.

FASHION HINTS HAND-PAINTED FLOWERS Hand-painted flowers are effective and novel trimmings for bouffant gowns of moule or satins.

SHAWL COLLARS Wide collars that look like shawls with points in the back, or pulled to the side, are seen on some of the dinner dresses of georgic crepe.

VELVET COATS Coat frocks of velvet are the latest novelties to arrive from Paris. They are gorgeously furled.

CREPE DE CHINE Crepe de chine in high colors is greatly liked by dress girls for party frocks and school occasions.

FRIENDS NOTICED IMPROVEMENT

Wonderful Results from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bethel, Wis.—My female trouble was brought on by overwork. I had been working in stores and had to do heavier work than my strength could stand, and had to be in my feet most of the time. Finally I had to give up this work entirely and stay at home. Doctor's medicine did not give me much relief, and my mother wanted me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took a couple of bottles of it and thought it did not help me as much as it should, so I gave it up to try something else. Nothing I took helped me much, so I finally decided to give the Vegetable Compound another trial and to take enough of it to make sure it would help me. I have taken it over a year now and it has brought wonderful results. I have gained from 93 to 110 pounds and am keeping house now. My friends all notice the change in my health. I will be glad to answer all letters that women write to me about the Vegetable Compound.—Mrs. W. G. MONSON, 1515 Park Ave., Beloit, Wis.

Mrs. Monson is willing to write to any woman suffering from such troubles.

TEUTON WAR HERO IS IN NEW LONDON

George Liebel, Former German Soldier, Will Make Permanent Home Here

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—George Liebel, formerly of Berlin, Germany and a German war veteran, arrived in New London Monday evening and will be employed as a carpenter by Schoenrock & Sons in their contracting business. The S. S. George Washington, on which Mr. Liebel was a passenger in company with 2000 other German immigrants, was forced to go on to Portland, Maine, to dock on account of the crowded condition at Ellis Island. Ten thousand immigrants from Germany landed in America at about the same time that Mr. Liebel arrived.

Mr. Liebel was in active service in the German army from the outbreak of the war in August, 1914 until his discharge in November, 1918, and served on the Romanian, Italian and French fronts. He suffered severe bullet wounds and spent several months in army hospitals.

Mr. Liebel spent a year in New London about 15 years ago. He is 45 years old and has a wife and two daughters in Berlin. His family will join him in this country as soon as he can arrange for their transportation.

Mr. Liebel brought a German police dog with him, and the dog is now in the possession of Walter Schoenrock, for whom he purchased it in Germany.

19 AT CLUB EVENT FROM NEW LONDON

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Neighborhood day for the Federated Women's clubs of Waupaca was observed at Waupaca Tuesday of this week. The session was held in the public library.

Each club president or her substitute reported the activities of her club during the past year. Mrs. P. A. Jennings presented a report for the Women's study club of New London and Mrs. J. W. Munsted for the Civic Improvement league. Each city also furnished one number for the program. Miss Cordell Freiburger represented New London with a reading. One hundred sixty visitors were guests of Waupaca Women's club at a one o'clock luncheon served in the dining room of the Methodist church.

The following ladies made up the New London delegation: Mesdames F. A. Jennings, J. W. Munsted, Anna King, W. J. Suder, John Lyon, A. C. Berchardt, William Oestrich, Albert Zenger, Mary Miller, Otto Lemke, H. B. Cristy, F. L. Zug, C. D. Feathers, F. J. Pfeiffer, George W. Warner, Fay R. Smith, M. C. Treysner and E. C. Jost and Miss Cordell Freiburger.

CHURCH FILLED AT JOHNSON FUNERAL

Church Unable To Accommodate All The Friends Of Gas Victim

Kaukauna—Funeral services for Mrs. Gus Johnson, 62, who with her sister, was killed by gas in Chicago Saturday evening, were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in First Congregational church, with the Rev. Daniel Woodward in charge. The church was packed to capacity and a large number of people who knew Mrs. Johnson were unable to get into the building. Bearers were the following neighbors: Olay Olson, J. N. Frederick, James Griffith, George Fulton, William Boller and C. S. Webster.

About 75 members of Kaukauna lodge, Royal Neighbors of America, of which Mrs. Johnson was a member, attended services in a body. She also was a member of the Equitable Fraternal Union. Those from out of the city who attended were Mrs. E. Altenberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. Knight, Mrs. M. Gardner, Mrs. W. Lenz, Mrs. Jaska, Mrs. Robert Towley, Manicow, Mrs. Rudolph Sammer, Apple Creek, Mr. and Mrs. John Vendenberg, Freedom, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reibem, New London; Mrs. W. D. Kurn, Appleton.

Social Items

Jeanette Lewis of Baraboo and Catherine Heit of Milwaukee, district organizers, conducted the initiation assisted by the local drill team. The business session was followed by a social hour. Music and dancing furnished entertainment. More than 100 ladies were present.

High School Will Have Program Every Thursday

Kaukauna—The weekly programs of the high school literary clubs will be held during the general assembly held on Thursday morning. The programs usually required more than the 20 minute period allotted for general assembly and by holding a program in the west assembly on Wednesday and one in the east assembly on Thursday, too much time was lost on both days.

Vivian State was chairman at the program given Thursday morning in the west assembly room. Cordell Runtz was secretary. The program follows:

"The Raven".....Kipping
Natalie Killian
Current Topic.....Thomas Mielinski
Piano solo.....Alice Parnell
"The Broken Hearted Dutchman".....
.....Reading
Laura Zwick

In the east assembly room the program opened with a piano solo by Margarete Haupt. Iola Jacobson gave a reading and a talk on Henry Ford was given by Norbert Gerend. Abe Golden and Martin Jensen closed the program with a number of vocal duets.

FREE DENTAL CLINIC REVIVED THIS YEAR

Three Dentists Will Treat School Children In Need Of Care

Kaukauna—The free dental clinic for school children of the city which was started last season by the health committee of Kaukauna Women's club and which met, with splendid success will be reopened for the coming school term Friday afternoon in the city nurse's office in the municipal building. A new electric engine and new tools used for dental work have been secured. The work will be carried on again as last year by three local dentists, Dr. E. J. Bollinski, Dr. E. C. Hallock and Dr. R. J. Van Rilla.

The clinic will be conducted every Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. All of the children who were examined last term had not been treated at the close of the term so it will not be necessary to hold examinations again for some time. Last year there were 153 extractions, 102 fillings, 29 treatments, cleanings and 29 office examinations.

OCOONTO NEXT FOE OF LEGION TEAM

Kaukauna—The management of the legion football team has succeeded in signing a contract with the strong Oconto legion football team for a game here Sunday afternoon. Efforts still are being made to sign up a team which will give the victorious squad a drubbing. As the season advances the chance that a strong team may turn the trick increases. The legion squad has its string of casualties and among those injured are one or two of the team's best men.

The eleven as a whole, however, is little weakened. Coach Ashe has three or more fullbacks one as capable as another of ploughing up the line and he has substitutes for other positions as well. Schrader, halfback is bothered with his knee and it is uncertain whether he will be in the fray Sunday.

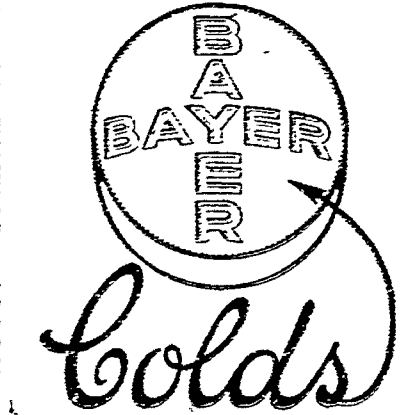

CLOSE COUNTY TRAINING SCHOOL FOR CONVENTION

Kaukauna—Outagamie County Training school is the only school which will be closed Thursday and Friday for the teachers' convention in session at Milwaukee. Three members of the faculty, Misses Jennie Peacock, Luella Bronson and Mildred Carter will attend the conference while W. P. Hagman, principal will spend the time visiting rural schools.

Olin G. Dryer will represent the Kaukauna teachers at the convention. Miss Rose Phillips of Nicolet school and Mrs. Maud McGinty, teacher of the deaf school, also will attend. According to a decision made at last year's convention only one teacher in every 25 will have power to vote for officers.

Mighty Healing Power of Peterson's Ointment

For Eczema, Ulcers, Old Sores and Piles

"I wish I could publish all the grateful letters I get every week," says Peterson. "I don't believe anyone on this earth has such a happy time at work as I have. All I do is make Peterson's Ointment and read letters like these that come right from the heart."

"I had an ulcer on my ankle—had it 20 years and could not get it healed. For the last six years I had several doctors. I got one box of your ointment and it almost healed it and it was entirely healed before I had used the second one. I don't think there is a better remedy on earth." Mrs. J. C. Henderson, 520 Sprague Street, Winston Salem, N. C.

Peterson's Ointment is just as good for piles as it is for old sores. It stops itching of eczema almost instantly. There isn't anything in the way of pimples or face blemishes that won't chase away. And for sore feet, chafing, sunburn, sores, cuts and bruises there is nothing so sure or speedy. 35 cents a box at any drug store.

Miss Margaret Scannel and Miss Estelle Gerrits left Wednesday for Milwaukee where they will attend the teachers' convention.

E. A. Gilson of Oshkosh, was a business caller here Wednesday.

Both the first and second basketball teams of the high school were defeated by the Rosendale high school teams at Waukegan Tuesday evening. The first team scored 15 to 7 and the second scored 5 to 3.

Miss Elva Van DenBerg called on friends in Appleton Monday.

County Deaths

MRS. MARTHA FUERST

NOTED MILWAUKEE LAWYER SPEAKS AT FORUM ON SUNDAY

Attorney Robert Wild To Give German Version Of Ruhr Invasion

One of Wisconsin's most distinguished lawyers and ablest speakers, Attorney Robert Wild of Milwaukee, will present the German viewpoint of the French invasion of the Ruhr at the second meeting of the People's forum in Lawrence Memorial chapel next Sunday evening. Dr. Pitman B. Potter presented the French viewpoint in an able address last Sunday evening. It is believed that all the persons who heard Prof. Potter's address will want to hear the German version as presented by Mr. Wild.

Attorney Wild is a native of Milwaukee, but both his parents were born in Germany. Mr. Wild's father was a soldier in the revolutionary army of Baden in 1848-1849.

Mr. Wild graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1897 and received his L. B. degree two years later. He has been a member of the law firm of Schmitz, Wild and Gross for 25 years.

In 1913 Mr. Wild was president of the Milwaukee Bar association and recently he was elected a curator of the State Historical society. He has one of the finest private libraries in Milwaukee, containing about 7,000 volumes, mostly history and political science. Mr. Wild has delivered several lectures before the Wisconsin Bar association.

The collection last Sunday night totaled only $57. That is hardly sufficient to pay expenses of the forum, the average cost of which is about $55.

CITY OVERRULED IN FIRST CLASH OVER ELKS' TAXES

Judge Crosby Overrules City's Demurrer To Elk Complaint

Judge E. W. Crosby of Neillville, sitting for Judge Edgar V. Werner in circuit court here, Thursday morning overruled the demurrer of the city of Appleton to the complaint of trustees of the Elks for recovery of $1,037.23 in taxes paid under protest in January of 1923. The city alleged the complaint filed by the Elks contained charges that were not included in the claim filed with the council.

It is not known what the next step in the case will be. It is understood that the city's defense in the action would stand or fall with the ruling on the demurrer. Whether the case will again go on trial has not been determined.

Attorney Mark S. Catlin represented the Elks and City Attorney Theodor Berg handled the city's end of the case.

The Ladies of the Evangelical Church will have a Food Sale, Saturday, Nov. 10, at Aug. Brandt Co.

ANNUAL ROLL CALL TO FINANCE HOME SERVICE FOR POOR

CANVASS CITY ON NOV. 17 TO ENROLL RED CROSS MEMBERS

Expect City's Young Women To Bear Burden Of Annual Campaign

An intensive effort to enroll every resident of Appleton in the Red Cross in the annual roll call which will be held on Nov. 17 has been started by the roll call committee of Outagamie county chapter of Red Cross. A house to house canvass by the young women of the community will close the campaign which begins on Sunday, Nov. 11, Armistice day.

Membership in Red Cross this year will mean more than just assisting in retaining the Red Cross chapter in Appleton. Half of all the money collected will be used for home service work for which there is a great need for funds. Welfare workers have long experienced great difficulty in obtaining help for poor persons in need of surgical treatment. Dozens of times their attention is called to poverty-stricken men, women and children whose condition is made more miserable by physical ailments that can be removed by proper care. Welfare workers have had great difficulty in obtaining this help. Many times surgeons and specialists have given their time and their skill to assist these persons but the women hesitate to constantly ask the doctors to donate their services when in reality the care of unfortunates is a community problem.

RETAIN HALF OF FEE
Half of the $1 membership fee in Red Cross will be retained in Appleton to pay for this service to the poor. There is no agency here to do that kind of work. The free bed fund established by St. Elizabeth club does not provide for surgical care. It does include nursing services and a certain amount of materials but only one patient at a time can be cared for. The Red Cross fund, it is believed will fill a want that has long been felt.

Young women of the community will be asked to bear the greatest share of the roll call burden this year. The older women, who have been doing the community service here for years, believe this an opportune time for the younger generation to get started in the work which they eventually must do. Young married women especially will be urged to take part in this roll call to relieve those who have borne the burden for many years.

MEETING IS CALLED
A meeting to invite every woman in Appleton is invited to be held in the council chamber of the city hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, to make final preparations for the house to house canvass on the following Saturday. The city will be distributed and it is hoped that enough volunteers will be obtained to make sure that not a home will be missed.

Young women especially are invited to attend the meeting. The roll call committee is hopeful that a spirit of civic helpfulness will be shown that will assure a successful roll call with a minimum of effort for the workers.

Mrs. Gustave Keller is chairman of the roll call committee. Other members are Mrs. George H. Packard, A. G. Meating, Dr. H. E. Peabody and Miss Esther Miller.

FOR ITCHING TORTURE
Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo
There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation, and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes skin diseases. Eczema, Itch, Pimples, Rash, Blackheads, in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 25c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins. Zemo Soap, 25c—Zemo Ointment, 50c.

ARMISTICE DAY TO PASS OFF QUIETLY

Veterans Defer Customary Banquet Until After Legion Campaign Is Over

Veterans of the World war will not hold their customary Armistice day banquet this year. Oney Johnson, president of the American legion has decided. The day falls on Sunday and the only formal observance will be a request to the churches and schools to make prominent mention of the day and its meaning.

Officers of the post declare that all of the legion's effort at this time is to be centered on its annual membership drive about the middle of the month. The banquet of former service men will be held after the first of the year instead of on Armistice day.

Congress has not set aside Nov. 11 as a legal holiday; hence the city has not been called upon to hold any extensive celebration.

HODGINS PLANS TO ATTEND STATE MEET

A state conference on weights and measures will be held in Madison Nov. 13 to 15 and probably will be attended by Joseph A. Hodgins, city sealer of weights and measures. Mr. George D. Gilman, state sealer of this district, is in charge of this district.

The opening addresses will be delivered by J. G. Emery, state superintendent of weights and measures, L. M. Kirtleson, mayor of Madison, and Governor J. J. Blaine. In addition, Charles C. Neale will speak on automatic scales. F. S. Holbrook of the United States bureau of standards, will deliver an address on specifications and tolerances.

On the second day of the convention the speakers will be R. F. Barron, commissioner of weights and measures in Minnesota; A. T. Thompson, state sealer of weights and measures, H. R. Estes, city sealer of Flint, Mich., and H. A. Juneau, state weighmaster. The conference will be closed Nov. 15 with an address on refining of gasoline by Dr. Gerald L. Ward of the Standard Oil Refinery, Whiting, Ind.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly
The best cough medicine you ever used. Family size for 25c. Coughs quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 12 hours. Tastes pleasant, too. It's like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified cod-liver oil, honey or cod syrup instead of sugar syrup. It's desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

Rechlin Recitals Help Lutherans To Restore Music's Church Power

Edward Rechlin's fame in the realm of organ recitals is the story of the growth of a small, untiring enterprise to a great national movement to restore to the Lutheran church some of the spiritual power of music which it seems to have lost.

Mr. Rechlin, organist of the great Emanuel Lutheran church of New York is to give an evening's concert in Lawrence Memorial chapel Wednesday evening of next week under joint auspices of the Lutheran congregation of Appleton. He will be assisted by Miss Marion Hutchinson, soprano soloist of Lawrence Conservatory of Music.

The inception of Rechlin's recitals date back to 1915 and 1917. The New York Reformation Quadrivertary committee had set as its goal to present the many-sided influence of the Reformation to the American people. It was aware of the influence which Luther's return to scripture had exerted on music. But when it sought the worthy presentation of this part of the Reformation, it became aware that among the Lutheran churches existed to fill the need.

St. Olaf church, which included Appleton last season, were included by the committee and Mr. Rechlin's organ recitals have been arranged in the same spirit. At first it was impossible to present even Lutheran organists in the organ. Four or five years of effort have had their reward, however, and hundreds of thousands not only have listened to the concerts, but the spirit of devotion and reverence for Lutheran music has been remarkable.

Mr. Rechlin has given more than a hundred recitals and has won the reputation as the foremost interpreter of Bach, the great German composer. At the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor he played to an audience of 4,000 and at St. Paul the audience was ever larger. The ticket sale here indicates that the chapel will be well filled not only with Appleton people but others from Outagamie county and the Fox river valley.

William H. Zuck, treasurer of the A.O. Association for Lutherans, is general chairman of the arrangements.

TWO THIRD GRADERS FINISH OUTSIDE READING COURSE

Helen Cohen and Carleton Fisher of the third grade in the First Ward school have the distinction of being the first pupils to complete the course of required outside reading for school children and have their names posted on a bulletin board in the child study department of the public library. Miss Minnie Grimm is teacher of this grade. The required books are taken from a list of good literature published by the committee of reading circle books. Many students are so interested in the outside reading that they finish the requirement before the expiration of time limit in which the books must be read.

TRAPPERS PREPARE FOR BUSY SEASON

Trappers are preparing for a busy season. A large number of trapping licenses and a few thousand trappers' tags have already been procured from the county clerk. The season for trapping muskrat opened Oct. 15 and the mink season opened Nov. 1. There is no bag limit except in the case of raccoon which is five a day. There is no open season for otter or beaver.

It is a violation to shoot or spear mink or muskrat or disturb a muskrat house or beaver dam or house, or to set traps within 200 feet of a beaver dam or house. The trapping license fee is $1 plus 5 cents for each trap bag, one tag to be attached to every trap used. License may be sold only to persons who have lived in the state at least a year.

Hair Like Mine

Has come to thousands in this easy way

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I found in France, many years ago, the greatest hair help science has discovered. My mother used it, and at 61 she had hair like mine today. I have used it. My hair is the marvel of millions. It grows finer every year. I have never had falling hair, a dandruff, never a touch of gray. And now, at the age of 61, it is hair that most girls envy.

I have supplied this help to countless friends. It brought them like results. So I am convinced that it means to millions such hair as cannot come without it. And I am going to help those millions get it. What experts say
This formula, perfected by French experts, is based on medicines of hair growth. They gave me these reasons for its amazing results:
It combats the hardened oil and dandruff which stifle the hair roots. They check the hair growth and destroy the hair. They choke the pigment which gives color to the hair. Thus it cleans the scalp, then it stimulates and fertilizes. Hair thrives under these conditions just as flowers thrive in a well-kept garden. It cannot harm the hair. It does not affect hair color, natural or artificial. It deals only with the scalp—the soil of the hair. And all the results come through reviving the roots.

Quick and easy

I call this formula my Hair Youth. I apply it with an eye dropper directly to the scalp. This takes but a minute a day, and it does not muss the hair. One feels at once its cleansing, stimulating action. And my own hair shows what it does for hair health and hair beauty.

Every dealer sells my Hair Youth under guarantee. If one bottle fails to delight you, he will return your money. I want every woman, without a penny of risk, to learn what my Hair Youth does. Edna Wallace Hopper's Hair Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. Price 50c and $1 with eye dropper. Also my Youth Cream, based on fruit. Also my Facial Youth, my famous hand cleanser. Also my White Youth Clay—the last word in facial clay. My Beauty Book comes with each. Try my Hair Youth at my risk. Do it now. The results are too fine to miss. Then I think you will want the other helps which did so much for me. And all of them are now at your command. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address: Waukegan, Wis. Note: Miss Hopper is now playing the Pantages Vaudeville circuit of the Western States.

C. OF C. CASTS 103 VOTES ON FORESTRY POLICY OF NATION

Almost Unanimous Support For Movement Expressed To Board Of Directors

An almost unanimous vote was cast in favor of a governmental and state policy of forest conservation by the Appleton Chamber of Commerce, according to a report submitted by Secretary Hugh G. Corbett at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday evening. The Stefansson lecture, forum dinner for farmers, the corn show, the Taylor Festival and the industrial committee's work on the Triumph stove proposition also were taken up. LITTLE OPPOSITION There were 103 ballots returned on the forestry referendum out of 503 mailed out to members. All of the voting on eight questions of preservation of forests and regulation of cutting and replanting were voted wholly in the affirmative except in four instances. Three voted against a national forest council created by congress, five against a national forestry survey of conservation, two against increased protection against timber fires and five against enlargement of research and experiment work. The other questions provided for replanting of waste lands, the purchase of such lands by the state and municipality and the enactment of legislation that would preserve the forest reserves of the country. The rural affairs committee was instructed to plan for the annual dinner of commerce corn exhibit in connection with the local poultry show. A meeting of the committee will be held next week to outline the contest and prizes. WORK WAS FUTILE Seymour Gmeiner, chairman of the industrial committee, gave his report on the attempt to locate the plant of the Triumph Stove & Heater company of Milwaukee here and explained how the lack of support on the part of Appleton people practically has lost this industry to the city. Months were spent in determining its merit, he said, and all this effort has been lost because not enough money could be raised to establish the plant here. He raised the question as to whether it pays the chamber to have a committee devote so much time to industrial finding. Ways of assuring a large attendance at the forum dinner for farmers of the county Nov. 20 were discussed, and arrangements also were made for proper assistance at the Stefansson lecture Thursday evening. The retail trades committee made a report concerning the merchandising institute which J. W. Flisk of Milwaukee will conduct here soon. Fire prevention and traffic safety were discussed, and these topics are to be taken up by the community welfare committee, it was decided.

CHAPEL GALLERY IS OPEN TO CHILDREN Reduced Fee Announced For Grade Pupils Who Want To Hear Stefansson Pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of Appleton schools will be able to hear the lecture at 8:15 Thursday evening at Lawrence Memorial chapel of Vilhjalmur Stefansson explorer, by payment of only 25 cents under an agreement announced by the chamber of commerce. The gallery will be opened to these pupils, if accompanied by their teachers. Notice was transmitted to all schools Thursday morning concerning this plan. Dr. W. S. Naylor of Lawrence college is to introduce Mr. Stefansson. The speaker arrived in Appleton Thursday morning, accompanied by an assistant who will operate a stereopticon machine. Mr. Stefansson intends to illustrate parts of his lecture by means of slides.

DOOR OF RAILROAD CAR FALLS ON GREENVILLE MAN

Henry Schultz, proprietor of a general store in Greenville suffered severe injuries to his head when a door of a railroad car fell upon him Thursday morning. Mr. Schultz was in the act of unloading coal from a railroad car. Observing that the door was not hinged securely on its hinges he attempted to adjust it. At that moment the door fell upon his head.

REPLEVIN SUIT DISMISSED WHEN DEBT IS PAID OFF

A replevin action instituted by William Brennan against George F. Prim to recover a motorcycle held by the police was dismissed without cost in municipal court Tuesday morning. On Oct. 27 Chief Prim interviewed Brennan in connection with another case, and learned that the motorcycle he was riding was brought here from Wausau. The chief communicated with Wausau and was told that the motorcycle was mortgaged and he was asked to seize it. Brennan started suit to recover the machine and in court on Thursday he paid off the mortgage, and the machine was given to him.

LANTERN BURSTS. BURNS FARMER AND IGNITES BUILDINGS

Wilmer Schultz, Dale, Suffers Heavy Loss When Barn And Sheds Are Destroyed

Fire caused by the explosion of a lantern about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening caused bodily burns to Wilmer Schultz, a farmer living three miles northwest of Dale, resulted in the loss of everything on his farm except his home and household goods. Mr. Schultz was carrying the lantern when it exploded. His clothing ignited, and objects near where he was standing also caught fire. He hastily tore off his burning jacket and put out other flames in his clothes. He then rushed to the stables, and was able to remove his five cows, two horses and small livestock. Everything else was consumed quickly including the barn with the hay and grain crops, corn crib, chicken coop and chickens, machine shed, machinery and other equipment. His automobile also was destroyed. Neighbors helping fight the flames removed all the furniture from the home expecting that the building also would be burned, but the impromptu firemen were able to keep it from igniting.

Mr. Schultz was burned severely on one arm and had slight burns on his body. The loss has not been estimated but it will be much in excess of his $2,000 insurance.

MARSH FIRE LIGHTS UP NORTH HORIZON

A fiery red glow lighting up the horizon, northwest of Appleton Wednesday evening gave every appearance of a forest fire, and would have caused resident to believe such but for the fact that there are no forests in the vicinity.

The reason for the blazing horizon was a big marsh fire sweeping over the lowlands along the Wolf river between Stephenville and New London. The fire came as a result a prolonged drouth. Motorists, attracted by the glare, observed the burning marshes about three miles west of Stephenville.

It is said that the fire swept over 600 acres of land and consumed several hay stacks in addition to marsh grass.

BURNING TREE ENDANGERS BIG COLLEGE DORMITORY

Appleton firemen at 8:15 Wednesday evening answered a call to extinguish a fire at Russell Sage dormitory of Lawrence college. A large tree near the dormitory had caught fire and endangered the buildings nearby. Electric wiring extending through the branches is presumed to have been the origin of the fire. The blaze was extinguished in ten minutes.

TRYING TO BE A 'GOOD FELLOW' IS WAY TO GET IN BAD

Water Department Runs Into Trouble Trying To Satisfy
Home Builders

Once upon a time there was a man who invented a phrase about "them milk of human kindness." Fred R. Morris, assistant secretary of the water commission, is looking for that man. The philosopher, through expressed, has some sense, he says, but one who takes care to see that the milk does not sour.

After the execution of a large water main program was held this week, the difficulty of obtaining pipe of a reasonable price so late in the season, a few home builders became frantic and clamored to the water department for help.

Mr. Morris informed them that the latest supply of pipe was exhausted, but on second thought he measured the supply of pipe to be used for the Lawrence bridge and found a surplus of about 250 feet. He looked over the list of maps authorized this year and found a small stretch in the Fifth ward where this amount would fit in. The installation necessitated a high clamor for pipe in the Fifth ward. Mr. Morris borrowed a small quantity of pipe that was available in Kaukauna. Aldermen soon found themselves plagued with a number of protests from dissatisfied persons who were informed that no more mains could be installed this year. It developed that to satisfy all demands, practically every city in Wisconsin would have to surrender their surplus pipe to the Appleton water department.

I SPIED THEY TODAY

WHY DIDN'T 'HE HOLLER'?

Wednesday evening about 1:30 on Pearl-st. I saw five mothers from the Valley Iron works riding in a Ford. About half way up the hill "Glenn" refused to work and had to be pushed back down the hill by the five men. At the top of the hill, Glenn got in and drove away leaving one of them to "work up." Then I reached Rosemead's shoe store there they were sitting waiting for the man they had left behind. I saw them from their exclamations that he was the driver of the car which they had driven away. ON THE SCREEN

"TEMPTATION" FOR ELITE ENGAGEMENT

The lure and glitter of a big city, the corollary force upon which these people term their pleasures "Life" are vividly revealed in "Temptation," the attraction which is to be presented for the photoplay patrons of this city on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Elite Theatre.

Lenore Coffey wrote the story of "Temptation," taking for her principal characters a young couple, devoted to each other. She has thrown these young folks into New York's confusion, allowed them to experience all the things it offers in return for money, youth and beauty—only to bring them to a realization of how like a bubble is the thing they considered happiness.

Edward J. LeSauter is responsible for the direction of the picture and the producer's claim to effect that the picture is "a masterpiece." Among the popular favorites appearing in "Temptation," are Bryant Washburn, Eva Novak, June Elvidge, Phillips Smalley and Vernon Steele.

"ASHES OF VENGEANCE" AN ENTRANCING PICTURE

"A mountain among the myriad molehills of the screen." Thus did the critic of the New York World Magazine describe Joseph M. Schenck's magnificent production, "Ashes of Vengeance," a First National picture starring Norma Talmadge, which the Elite Theatre will present for 4 days, commencing Monday. In his quest for material with which to add another brilliant chapter to the notable achievement of his great star, Mr. Schenck had his attention called to "Ashes of Vengeance," while in England a year ago. He read the novel and immediately acquired the screen rights, and he determined that the work would be filmed in strict adherence to the narrative and to historical accuracy.

Thus it is that "Ashes of Vengeance" is an entrancing romance with rich historical background, dealing with a dramatic period in the annals of France which offers richer opportunities for forgiveness of costume and setting, and for stirring deeds of valor, perhaps than any period in any other country's history.

To insure accuracy in production, Mr. Schenck delegated the writing of the continuity to Frank Lloyd, who had been selected as director, the art direction to Stephen Goossens, of "Les Misérables," and the costume design to Jeanne Bresson, of Paris.

ONE OF THE SWEETEST STORIES EVER TOLD
IN PICTURES

Norma Talmadge in the role of "Tess," principal character in Grace Miller White's "The Secret of the Storm Country," the attraction at the New Bijou theatre the last times today.

Miss Talmadge ranks among the foremost players on the motion picture screen and her popularity in this city is widespread. Her recent successes, among them "The Eternal Flame" and "Smilin' Thru," have thrown her even more into the limelight than she had previously been.

This will add materially to the local interest in her engagement here in "The Secret of the Storm Country."

Those whose practice it is to read all the popular novels that are published will recall that "The Secret of the Storm Country" created quite a furore when it was published some years ago; they will also be interested to know that it is still selling actively throughout the country. Its remarkable balance of pathos and humor has given it an appeal very much like that of "Way Down East."

An exceptional supporting cast.

WINNEBAGO WANTS TO CONTINUE ITS HIGHWAY PROGRAM

County Highway Commission
Seeks Expression On Road
Building In 1924

The question of whether Winnebago shall adopt a program of economy and curtailment of highway construction was discussed at a public meeting in Oshkosh Monday. The meeting was called by the county board to secure the viewpoint of county residents as a guide to legislation by the board. Mayor Henry Reuter of Appleton and Theodore Berg, city attorney, were among those who attended. They asked for help in limiting up the Cherry-st road with highway 18.

Although a few farmers advocated a halt in concrete road construction and urged more patrolled roads, the general consensus of opinion appeared to be that building of roads must continue in 1924.

State Senator M. F. White called attention to the fact that $250,000 in highway bonds will be due this year. He asked for an expression of opinion as to whether more money should be borrowed to continue the work. He believed it would be foolish to permit county machinery purchased at a cost of $100,000 to rust on graveling of main roads does not pay because it requires constant maintenance, he said.

Among those who spoke in favor of securing by purchase or condemnation a strip of land through E. J. Lynch farm to connect with the Cherry-st road in Appleton were Mayor M. M. Schenck of Menasha and J. M. Parker of Oshkosh. Mayor Schenck urged that consideration be given to "Ashes of Vengeance" in their claim for a connecting link between Route 18 and Route 47 which would lead off the Cherry-st road.

shares honors with Miss Talmadge and includes such well known players as Niles Welch, Ethel Grey Terry, J. Herbert Frank and others of equal prominence. The picture was directed by Charles Miller who has given some of the best Talmadge productions of the screen.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are a boon for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive taste. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

RICHARD ELECTED ALDERMAN FROM THIRD WARD

COUNCIL TO MEET AGAIN TO DISCUSS BID FOR MORE PAY

Police And Fire Men Ask Wage Increase—Start Work Soon On Budget

Application of Appleton policemen and firemen for a $25 a month increase in salaries was reported to the common council by the finance committee Wednesday without recommendation.

Alderman J. F. Lappen of the Second ward, chairman of the committee, made the suggestion, however, that the matter be discussed by the entire council in a committee of the whole session at which members of the police and fire departments could be given opportunity to be heard. The matter was thereupon referred to the committee of the whole.

At the close of the council meeting the aldermen resolved themselves into a committee of the whole. Alderman C. F. Smith of the Third ward was asked by Mayor Henry Reuter to assume the chair. Mr. Smith adjourned the committee meeting subject to call by the chair.

DRAFT BUDGET

Alderman Lappen also announced that the finance committee soon will begin to hold preliminary meetings in which to draft a budget for the coming year. Heads of the various departments and aldermen of the different wards were asked to submit estimates for appropriations needed.

It is likely that a certain amount will be included in the budget for improvement of the proposed Cherry-st road extending from the south end of the bridge to highway 15. Mayor Reuter reported on the highway meeting that he and Theodore Berg, city engineer, attended in Ashkosh with a view of securing help from Winnebago to go toward connecting the proposed road with the Menasha-rd.

O. C. Rollman, divisional engineer of the highway commission, who also was present, informed the Winnebago highway committee that a report of the state legislative committee appointed to lay out 2,500 additional miles of state highway probably would be announced at the time of the meetings of the county boards throughout the state.

The legislative committee's decision on rerouting highway 15 so as to connect with Cherry-st instead of Oneida-st would have a direct bearing on the action of Winnebago-co toward purchasing a part of the Lynch farm in the town of Menasha for road purposes, the mayor said. Appleton also is anxious to have the state and county aid to pay the balance of the road.

TENTATIVE PLANS

Alderman L. O. Hansen asked the mayor what "improvements" he had in mind for the Cherry-st road, to which Mayor Reuter replied that the present plans were only tentative ones. The preliminary plan of O. F. Weissberger, former city engineer, called for a 100-foot right of way laid out as a boulevard with two 20-foot roadways. If the expense were too great, the city could begin by concreting only one of the roadways, the mayor said.

Rather than pave one 20-foot roadway connecting with a bridge that is 20 feet wide, Alderman Lappen advocated paving the whole thoroughfare. Alderman Hansen objected to this procedure and reminded the council that the original intention was to cinder the street until traffic conditions warranted a pavement. Alderman R. F. McGilgan interposed that such might be the recourse in case federal, state and county aid were not forthcoming.

NEED NEW CAR

Another item of expense the finance committee will have to consider is the repair of the chief's car of the fire department or the purchase of a new one.

The body of the present car is rusting to pieces, it was reported by chief George P. McGilgan. A new body will be necessary, and a number of parts will have to be replaced, he said. In case the council decides to purchase a new car, it is asked to provide a highpowered car inasmuch as that is the only kind of vehicle that will be practicable in pushing through Appleton's snow laden streets in the winter time, he suggested. The fire and water committee will investigate the condition of the car, the probable cost of repairs and the cost of a new one.

FIVE NEW ORDINANCES

Five new ordinances were proposed or suggested Wednesday evening. An ordinance amending the zoning ordinance so as to create a new local business district in block 14 of Edward West's plat Fourth ward, was referred to the ordinance committee and ordered published. Louis Lush, city engineer, submitted a model ordinance for the licensing of electric cars. The ordinance was the one that is in force in Green Bay and was referred to the street lighting committee for investigation. R. M. Connelly suggested the drafting of an ordinance that would permit sidewalks to be built only by licensed walk builders. He pointed out the irregularities in walk lines and grades and poor materials and workmanship that had arisen from allowing property owners to build their own walks. As long as the city is held responsible for accidents that occur due to defective walks, he believed that the city should regulate the walk building more effectively. The city attorney and city engineer were asked by the council to draft an ordinance to cover the subject.

An ordinance in force in North Chicago and Waukegan regulating rail road crossings and making all such from crossings arterial was submitted to the signal engineer of the Chicago and Northwestern railway company. The committee on streets and bridges all-fort to distressed sufferers. Schlitz suggested enactment of a parking ordinance.

An application for permit to construct a new building was submitted to the building department.

The council also considered the application of the fire department for a new fire engine.

GETS 7 VOTES TO SUCCEED LABBS IN COMMON COUNCIL

New Alderman Will Serve Until Expiration Of Term In April

George T. Richard, 549 Locust-st., is the new alderman from the Third ward, as a result of a vote taken by city council at its regular meeting Wednesday evening. The election was undertaken to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of A. W. Laabs from the city.

Three candidates had submitted their names to the council, namely Mr. Richard, Frank N. Bachman and John M. Waite. It was agreed to vote by secret ballot. The first ballot, being an informal one, resulted in seven votes for Mr. Richard, four for Mr. Bachman and none for Mr. Waite. The informal ballot was then upon motion pronounced a formal one and Mr. Richard was declared elected.

Under the provisions of the city charter, the alderman-elect must file his acceptance and take the oath of office before the city clerk within ten days after election in order to qualify for office. His term will expire in April, 1924.

"JUST LIKE T. R."

Mr. Richard is in the abstract business and is secretary and manager of the Outagamie Loan and Title Company maintaining offices over the Appleton State bank. His name is similar to that of Mr. Bachman was proposed for nomination by his predecessor, Mr. Laabs at the time he resigned from the council three weeks ago. He remarked that both were good men, but manifested a preference for Mr. Richard.

"Well, Teddy Roosevelt chose his own successor," observed Alderman J. A. Wood from the First ward. "I don't see why Mr. Laabs should not."

Mr. Bachman received a number of votes in the last primary aldermanic election, although he had not submitted nomination papers. He withdrew from the race in the finals in favor of Alderman C. F. Smith who was ultimately elected. The Cherry-st bridge question was an issue in the last election, an issue on which both Mr. Bachman and Mr. Smith were united. Mr. Bachman was unwilling to place his name before the council for the present unexpired term of Mr. Laabs' but upon the urgent request of a number of aldermen did so on the last day before election.

Mr. Waite who ran strongly in opposition to Mr. Laabs in the spring election of 1922 also was prevailed upon to submit his name as a candidate. He received no support by the council Wednesday evening. None of the candidates was present at the meeting.

Discusses Trade Conditions

Leather conditions and general conditions pertaining to the shoe business were discussed at a meeting of Appleton retail shoe dealers at Hotel Appleton Wednesday evening. The meeting was preceded by supper.

W. C. Buelow of Hortonville has been appointed a section foreman at New London. He began his new duties Nov. 1.

"THE FOOL"

BY CHANNING POLLOCK

Play copyrighted, 1932, in the United States and England. Novelized version by special permission of the author, and of Brentano's, publishers of the play.

"What is this?" he demanded. "What is this?" he demanded.

"Jerry told you what it is," stormed Benfield. "It's surrender."

Daniel cut in now, in voice as loud as theirs.

"Not 'surrender'!" he protested. "It's justice!"

"It's nothing," returned Goodkind. "It's a scrap of paper."

"I saw it, and I wouldn't sign it if I were a man!" he cried.

"Why should I? We've got 'em locked!"

"If you'll only let me explain," said Daniel, soothing.

"Explain what?" roared Goodkind. "They're locked. They've won over the delegation!"

Goodkind's abundance of patience was ebbing. The hardness that had come to his thin, earnest face was not the hardness of wrath or malice.

Rather it was the uncompromising flame of conviction.

"You mean you've bought the delegation," he said, hotly.

"Who said so?" asked Goodkind, with a curious infection.

"Jerry—just a minute ago," answered Daniel. "Stedman's a company man."

"Herring's for sale. Buy him," he stormed. "And I'll go back and tell them he's bought—and prove it!"

"You're working for us!" put in Benfield.

"I'm working for—" Daniel's voice softened.

Goodkind's shrewdness transcended his anger for a moment. He saw danger in Glichrist's firmness and earnestness.

"Wait a minute, Benfield," he said, waving a hand at his associate. "We've all lost our heads!"

His tone was calmer. "Daniel and I have just been over all this and he has admitted I was right."

Daniel looked at him amusedly. "Right as far as you went," he said.

"But you only went part way. You have a right to a profit on your ideas, and your investment and the labor you put back to it."

The public has a right to coal and transportation, and all it needs and pays for."

He paused a moment and lifted a finger toward the two.

"But, above everything else," he went on, "the workman who works honestly has a right to something more than the barest kind of a bare living, and it can all be done if you don't sink everybody's rights to accumulate a fortune you don't need and can't see. All the argument on earth can't make you all right so long as there's a Umanaki in the world."

"If these people succeed there's no limit to what they'll do," argued Goodkind.

"If they fail, there's no limit to what they'll do," returned Glichrist. "There's no good transferring control from the intelligent few to the ignorant mob."

Goodkind has lost his tone of fire. He was talking to convince—talking in that sure, cool manner he had used on innumerable occasions in swinging a board of directors to his support. It was not so successful with Glichrist.

"There's no good in anything so long as we fight each other like beasts, instead of helping each other like brothers," he answered. He was calm, too, and cool, but glowingly earnest. "There's no hope anywhere except in the great teacher, and in the understanding that what he taught was not only good morals, but good sense and good business."

Goodkind was a good listener. He was trying to win Daniel by apparent sincere consideration of his scheme of things—a consideration that would make more convincing his ultimate rejection. He saw that during this man would serve no purpose. The great barrier he had to overcome was his indomitable honesty and sincerity. It was no time to goad these qualities. Hot talk would not rout them. Fast talk might.

But Charles Benfield was neither diplomat nor a tactician. "Highly intelligent!" he flung at Daniel's philosophy.

The remark swept away the careful approach Goodkind had sought to build. He glared at his colleague, then, seeing there was to be no operation from this quarter in a program of clear-headed appeal, he abandoned his tack and aligned himself with the intolerant, resolute Benfield.

"What?" asked Daniel, in all innocence.

"Millions!" exploded Goodkind, with a gesture that took in all the world and indicated that the fate of civilization was at stake, as well.

"Oh, is that all?" There wasn't the trace of a smile on Glichrist's thin, drawn, white face.

"All?" stormed Benfield. Somehow he felt this "master" was trying to make fun of him. With the sensitiveness of the inferior he was more infuriated at this than he would have been had Glichrist struck him. Again, too, Daniel's tranquility vexed in him an anger that he could not explain.

Daniel took the cigar from his mouth, flung it about, then cast it aside.

"Am I costing you one cigar?" he asked quietly. "Am I costing you one blanket from your warm beds, or one stick of furniture from your comfortable homes?"

He looked about the room, with its priceless tapestries and rare furnishings. "Am I costing you anything else you ever missed? I'm making nothing from you and I'm giving thousands of men like you a chance to live."

"You're costing yourself your last chance of success!"

There was a tone of threat in Goodkind's remark.

Daniel looked at him with eyes that held both pity and scorn.

"I don't want your kind of success," he shouted. "I'm through. I'm giving his arms in a gesture of resignation. 'I give you back your job as I gave you back your church and—' This time it was he who threatened, but in a different tone."

"I give you 24 hours to sign that agreement."

Goodkind narrowed his eyes and glared at him.

"If I do, you're finished," he shot. Daniel was calm again now. There was a trace of a smile about his eyes.

"I am when you've signed," he said quietly. He had picked up his hat and was moving toward the door. Goodkind took a step forward.

"If you walk out that door, you're throwing away the chance of your life!"

"I'm keeping my soul!" Glichrist threw open the door and stood there, his figure framed by the arch against the black background of the dark hallway.

"You Judas!" snorted Benfield. "You damned fool!" muttered Goodkind.

"Good night," said Glichrist. CHAPTER XV "OVERCOAT HALL"

There was an air of patriarchal dignity about "Overcoat Hall." It looked one of New York's old downtown streets in the face with something akin to pride. Despite the fact that its red brick front was dulled by retarding dust and its low stoop shambled a bit under the burden of age.

Years ago it had been a "mansion," prided, almost petted. But when New York crept uptown it had been too cumbersome to carry along. And now it was "Overcoat Hall," surrounded by new and noisy human neighbors who knew nothing of its tradition.

There was something of the same men in the man who stood before it this Christmas Eve, looking at its lighted windows rather doubtfully. His indecision vanished as a cold wind caught him and set him quivering unpleasantly. With a careless gesture of resolve he strode in.

The room he found was warm. It seemed comfortable enough, too. He surveyed it skeptically. At one end was a platform, with a chair and a table. At one side was a blackboard.

He read the inscription: "And so, to the end of history, hate shall breed hate, murder shall breed murder, and the gods create a race that can understand." He looked puzzled, then turned to another inscription. "Luck is work," he read and waved it away with a dirty hand.

In the center at a table he at last discerned a man, almost hidden by a large magazine, opened before him.

"Hello, you!" the newcomer beamed. "Is this Overcoat Hall?"

"Grubby" Milton, red of face, scraggly of beard, hardly looked up as he replied in the affirmative.

"I'm looking for Mr. Glichrist," said the man.

"He ain't in but he will be. Have a seat."

Mack sat down at the table and reached for a magazine. He rejected several, then turned to Grubby.

Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses

John McCormack

Wonderful One

John McCormack

These are popular waltz songs, and each of them loveliness. "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses" today is known the world over. It is sung with fine sentiment, to the soft counter-melody of strings and the gentle tangle of the orchestra. "Wonderful One" is in much the same style. Neither song is "too deep" for general acceptance, and each is sung with smoothness, unctious and the spirit of perfect art.

Lawrence Is Conceded To Have Big Edge Over Northwestern Eleven

Christoph Training To Fill Grignon's Place At Fullback; Buck Drills Line On Defense

Scrimmages and defensive drill were the chief items on Coach Cub Buck's schedule Wednesday afternoon in preparing his Blue and White squad for next Saturday's battle with Northwestern at Watertown. Grignon, star fullback, is out of the game this week with an injured leg received in the Ripon contest last week, and Buck is trying out a number of men for that position. Christoph worked out for the place Wednesday afternoon, and showed up well in the scrimmaging against the fast Freeman squad. Gander probably will be out for practice again after the Northwestern clash, but a torn ligament is holding him out now. Goan has had a bone in one of his legs reset, but although it is healing nicely, he will be unable to get into training for the rest of the season.

STRONG BACKFIELD

After his smashing display of driving power last Saturday, Lawrence is keeping up the good work in practice and promises to plow through the Northwestern line with little trouble. Boescher also came through the Ripon game in fine shape and will be there to do his bit in the backfield with Kinney and Christoph. The Lawrence line has been getting the brunt of Buck's drill since Saturday, and if hard work has any effect, Northwestern will run into plenty of trouble in attempting to pass in the game. Lawrence and White, using the second string almost exclusively, had little difficulty in walking away from Northwestern, 60 to 0, and unless the Watertown eleven has improved greatly this season, Lawrence will not be called upon to show all its stuff Saturday. The local college is generally conceded to have the edge on Saturday's opponents in every department but in spite of that, the squad is taking no chances on letting up in its drill.

HARVARD TAKES UP NEW STYLE OF PLAY FOR TIGER CONTEST

Big Three Elvens Change Tactics To Prepare For First Conference Game

New York — A style of play entirely new to Harvard-Princeton football is expected from the Crimson Saturday afternoon in the opening contest of the annual big three series at Palmer Memorial stadium. In last Saturday's play against Tufts and in this week's practice sessions two distinct departures from tactical scheme long in vogue at Cambridge have been noted by foot ball students.

The selection of Joe McGlone, a star broken-field runner and triple threat man, as first string quarterback and the fact that Harvard has been stressing practice in direct passing are accepted by many as proof positive of a wholesale reorganization of Harvard football.

This prospect has served to increase interest in the Big Three series. Heretofore conservative football, the employment of the kicking game and a disposition to "wait for the breaks," has featured the series. Of the three teams, Harvard has been the most conservative. The Crimson's theory has been that tenacious defense directed by a quarterback who refrained from fagging mind and body by attempting to carry the ball and make interference were better than eleven players whose quarterback took more active part in the play.

It has been Harvard's theory also that deception was of greater value than speed. And in the changes already shown Harvard appears to have forsaken these theories for the carrying and interfering forces and in substituting direct for delayed passing in sacrificing deception for speed.

Princeton enthusiasts admit doubts as to the Tiger's ability to meet and check the organized Harvard attack, but assert the Tigers will show something equally new and difficult in Saturday's game.

FOUR SQUADS STILL HAVE CHANCE TO CUP BIG TEN GRID TITLE

Wisconsin Hopes To Get Chance At Michigan By Defeating Illinois

Madison — If Wisconsin should defeat Illinois in their annual gridiron contest at Champaign Saturday, and the Badgers have strong hopes of turning the trick where Iowa, Northwestern and Chicago have failed, it will make the Michigan-Wisconsin game to be played at Madison Nov. 17, the most important football game in the Midwest.

Illinois and Michigan are the only two teams in the conference which have won all their games. Wisconsin neither having been defeated, but have played a tie game. Therefore Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota are still in the running for the championship. The Suckers still have Wisconsin and Ohio to meet; the Wolverines have Wisconsin and Minnesota; the Badgers, Illinois, Michigan and Chicago; and the Gophers Iowa and Michigan.

EXPECT RECORD CROWD

Wisconsin is looking for another record crowd for the Michigan game. All tickets applied for by mail will be sent from Madison Friday under registered mail which will tax the capacity of dozens of postoffices for several days before they can all be delivered.

By sending all tickets out by registered mail this season Wisconsin has eliminated the possibility of tickets being lost or stolen after they leave the ticket office, as every package containing tickets must be receipted for before the postman will leave it. Because no two letters can be sent under the same registry number, all tickets applied for together must be sent to one address, which caused some misunderstanding among a few applicants for tickets for the Minnesota game until the member of their party who had received the tickets reported to them.

CUT RAIL RATES

As was the case in the Minnesota game the railroads have granted a rate of one and one-third fare from any point in Wisconsin, Chicago, western Illinois and as far west as Mankato, Minn., to Madison for the Michigan game. Due to the persistent effort of T. E. Jones, director of the department of physical education, Wisconsin was the first conference school to obtain such a rate, and with the new stadium with a seating capacity of 36,000 seats will be provided for all who wish to attend.

The University of Michigan is sending 2,500 rooters to Madison for the big game which may decide the conference championship. Rather than keep his players idle this week Coach Yost has scheduled a game for Saturday with the United States Marines while Wisconsin is playing at Illinois.

Report Grange Played As Pro With Packers

Madison — Reports and wild rumors that Red Grange, the Illinois star, would be protested by Wisconsin were denied here Wednesday morning.

"We do not believe in that sort of thing," said Athletic Director Jones. He admitted that he had heard the rumors but says it is up to the University of Illinois authorities to ascertain whether the rumors are anything but fair gossip.

According to the report here Grange is said to have played with the Rock Island, Ill., pro team two years ago.

PACKERS DENY GRANGE EVER PLAYED ON TEAM

Green Bay — Officials of the Green Bay Packers, professional football corporation, emphatically deny that Red Grange, the Illinois varsity football star, ever played with the Green Bay professional eleven.

The report that Grange saw service with the Badger state champions several years ago is branded as false here and the football officials say the story is "another attempt to muckrake professional football."

under the name of Smith: It is also rumored that he played at Green Bay, but this is denied by the management of the Packers eleven.

The story about Grange's student career where feeling against Illinois is bitter as a result of the protest of Gerber, Illinois athletic heads claim that they did not file the charges against Grange but nevertheless the undergrads feed that the Champaign authorities are behind the protest even if they did not actually make it.

They point to the eleventh hour protest a year ago as an indication of Illinois' stand in such questions.

Chicago — Checks totalling $92,195.74 available from world's series gate receipts were being received Wednesday by members of the clubs which finished second and third in the National and American leagues.

Holds Record

KATHERINE LEE
Chicago — Seventeen years old, an athlete for exactly one year, Katherine Lee of this city now looms as one of the most promising feminine sport contenders in the country.

Recently she established a world's record for women in the high jump, clearing the bar at 4 feet 10 1/2 inches. Later in unofficial effort she bettered the performance with a 5 feet 1 1/2 inch jump.

She is also a broad jumper, pole vaulter and hurdle racer of exceptional ability. Experts predict she will be the greatest all-round woman athlete in the world within a year or so.

BIG TEN RAPIDLY DISCARDING PROS

Major Griffith Comments On Strict Enforcement Of Conference Rules

By Associated Press
Chicago — The western conference is rapidly upping professional from among its athletes by strict enforcement of rules, Major John L. Griffith, conference commissioner of athletics said, in a statement Thursday. His pronouncement followed closely the finding by the University of Wisconsin Athletic council that E. C. Gerber, star Badger tackle, violated a Big Ten Rule which he accepted compensation for directing Y. M. C. A. athletes. Commissioner Griffith declared that "in the last fifteen months, the conference directors have disqualified thirty or forty men for violating the professional rule." In that time the names of 3,000 varsity and freshmen varsity athletes have been on file in the different universities.

"It is to be questioned," the commissioner said, "whether any other group of colleges has disqualified such a large percentage of its athletes for professionalism. This does not mean that more men in this section are professional than in other sections, and in fact most of these men were qualified for minor infractions of the rule, but it means that the directors are enforcing the rules."

KIMBERLY BLUE MOONS BEAT OLYMPIC BOWLERS

Kimberly Blue Moons Wednesday evening defeated the Olympic Bowling team of Appleton two-out of three games in a team match at the Olympic alleys. The Olympics' total score was higher than the Blue Moons, as Brauer and Retson of the Appleton team both rolled over 200. Retson was high man with 213 for one rack, and also bowled 201 in another rack. Genesee of the Blue Moons followed closely on his heels with 212, and Lamers came next with 210. Brauer of the Olympics also rolled higher than 200.

The match scores:

Notre Dame Backfield Often Changes Its Pace

Billy Evans Attributes Rockne's Success In Large Measure To His Varied Tactics On Grid

By BILLY EVANS
In baseball it's the manager who shifts his style of play that gets results.

No longer is the old army game a baseball term used in reference to a team that uses the sacrifice constantly with a runner on first in an effort to put over a run.

One run doesn't mean much in these days of the lively ball. In an all-night pitching duel, the proper play is to try for the run, but pitchers' battles are the exception. The dangerous team is the club that mixes them up.

The same principle holds good for a winning pitcher. Once upon a time a fast ball alone was enough to be a big winner, but those days are past. The pitcher must mix 'em up, have a change of pace.

WORKS BOTH WAYS

What aids good for baseball is equally true for modern football. Open play is to the gridiron what the lively ball is to the diamond.

All of which brings us up to the vital question, the reason for the remarkable success of the Notre Dame eleven. On successive Saturdays' Notre Dame overwhelmed three of the strongest teams in the country. West Point, Princeton and Georgia Tech.

Why the remarkable success of Notre Dame?

First, of course, one must mention Coach Knute Rockne, master strategist of the gridiron. He is the so-called "master mind."

MUST HAVE TALENT
In the last world series it was proved the "master mind" meant nothing if lacking the talent to carry out instructions. Fortunately for Rockne he has the very best in his football squad needed to exploit his system to the highest degree.

Notre Dame mixes them up. Against the Army Notre Dame worked the forward pass overtime. Princeton prepared for such a game and Notre Dame shifted to a running attack. Against Princeton Notre Dame gained 220 yards by rushing. Only 41 yards by forward passing.

Notre Dame's great success is due to a combination of the forward pass and the running game. The pass constantly acts as a threat, and offers a mask to an end run or an off-tackle play, often better offensive weapons than the pass.

ABLE TO VISUALIZE
Ever since the adoption of the pass Rockne has always been able to visualize, see the possibilities of the play far in advance of most coaches. To use a baseball term the Notre Dame eleven has a change of pace that is most deceptive and disconcerting. The opposition never knows what is coming next.

Rockne has the winning system. His great backfield sextet of Miller, Stuhldreher, Layden, Crowley, Maher and Bergman added by fast moving forwards are able to carry the Rockne system to a successful conclusion.

A great coach plus a great team tells the story at Notre Dame.

MISKE'S RIGHT IS SLEEPING POTION FOR BILL BRENNAN

Referee Shea Calls For More Pep Just Before Knockout

Omaha — Billy Miske, St. Paul heavyweight, knocked out Bill Brennan in the fourth round of their ten-round bout here Wednesday night. It was the first fight either man had participated in for several months.

Brennan did not appear to be in condition. The fighting was all at close range, both Brennan and Miske hooking with rights to the head.

After being warned by Referee Shea at the end of the second round, to display more action, Brennan rushed his St. Paul opponent and fell into a clinch. Miske hooked him with a right, and the law and Brennan reeled around the ring, falling in his own corner as the bout ended.

The fourth round was brief. Brennan, still dazed, walked to the center of the ring, where he was met with a right to the jaw and was counted out.

The weights were announced as Brennan, 205; Miske, 192.

In the semi-final, Morris Sclaifer, Omaha welterweight, dispatched Harry Summers of Oakland, Calif., with a half dozen right and left swings to the head in the first minute of fighting, the referee stopping the bout when it was evident Summers was unable to continue.

Battling Munro of Kansas City scored a technical knockout over Joe Stargi of Omaha in the second round. They are heavyweights.

LEONARD-WALKER BOUT SET FOR NEXT SUMMER

St. Louis — Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, on Wednesday announced arrangements, were being made for a bout between Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, and himself. The bout probably will be next summer at a location not yet decided on, Leonard added.

BADGER SQUAD IS BADLY CRIPPLED BY GERBER'S LOSS

Wisconsin Eleven Seeks Man To Replace Seasoned Tackle Against Illini

By Associated Press
Chicago — The disqualification of E. C. Gerber, big tackle on the University of Wisconsin eleven, overshadowed other news from western conference training camps Thursday. Doubt was expressed whether the Badgers would be able to replace the role left in their line by Gerber's ineptly before the all-important game with Illinois on Saturday. Until the university athletic council found that the lineman had committed a technical violation of the conference rule against using athletic skill for gain and as a consequence was ineligible for further athletic competition, Coach Ryan had banked on having his regular tackle to use against the strong Illini.

Whatever the final arrangements of players, whether Miller, Benson or Stuhldreher take the place, it will be in the hands of a man relatively inexperienced and unequal to the replaced regular. The Illini are performing their attack to spring against the Badgers in an effort to bring about a victory and a continued position among the leading western conference championship contenders.

With Gerber missing from the Badger line, the Illini are counted as having as good a forward wall as their opponents and Grange in the backfield gives them a decided edge in that department.

DENBY TO SEE GAME

The Marines are enroute to Ann Arbor where they meet Michigan Saturday. Secretary Denby with 1,500 "leathernecks" is scheduled to follow the advance guard of players.

From Iowa city comes the news that Coach Jones has devised a new lineup for his Hawkeye regulars who meet Minnesota on Nov. 17. In the meantime both teams are taking things relatively easy.

Chicago, with the regularly defeated Indiana team to play Saturday, is pointing its team toward the Wisconsin game of Nov. 24. Practice during the week has been with the Badger conflict in view.

FIGHT MAGNATES MAY WAIVE RULE FOR STRIBLING

Southern School Boy Under Age Limit But Expects To Fight In Gotham

New York — Young Stribling, Georgia schoolboy boxer, will be granted a license to box in New York, it was said on Wednesday after the southerner, accompanied by his father, filed formal application with the state athletic commission.

The commission, however, probably will take no action on the application for a few days. Stribling is only 15 and under the commission's ruling no boxer under 21 can engage in a match longer than six rounds. However, the Stribling's ease, although he may commission may waive this rule in first be asked to box in a preliminary contest to demonstrate that he is physically able to go a longer distance. Stribling was expected to be examined for this purpose on Wednesday, but at the commission's office it was said nothing had been done.

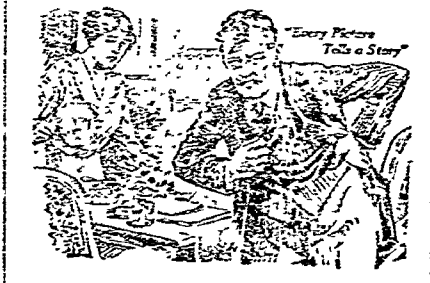

Tex Rickard is understood to be ready to match Stribling with Johnny Wilson of Boston, former middleweight champion, or to sign the Georgia youth to substitute for either Mike McGlone of Gene Tunney in case either of the latter is unable to go through with their world's lightweight title bout scheduled on Dec. 10. The promoter's plans are being held up, however, pending the commission's action.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE IS STARTED AT BELOIT DUNDEE SCHEDULE CALLS FOR 11 BOUTS IN 10 WEEKS

Beloit — Early basket ball practice started Tuesday afternoon at Beloit college. Likely freshmen aspirants for Johnny Dundee, world's featherweight champion, by his manager, Coach E. J. Osgood to try for the varsity squad. Only three of last year's midwest championship eagles, reported Tuesday afternoon. Most of the Beloit basketballers of last year are now on the Gold football squad. Laffin, captain of the 1923 basketball champions, has charge of the freshman practice, until after Thanksgiving, when Coach Tommy Mills takes charge. The other veterans out for early practice are Lloyd and Weigert.

New York — Eleven bouts in ten weeks is the busy program outlined for Johnny Dundee, world's featherweight champion, by his manager, James J. Johnston.

The series, which begins at Frontenac, Kansas, Nov. 13, when Dundee meets Jimmy Benning, will take the champion through the middleweight and south Atlantic states and will end in Portland, Oregon, Jan. 27.

In addition to Benning, Dundee's list of opponents includes Joey Fox, Harry Mendelsohn, Joey Sangor, Joe Gorman, Bobby Hand and other less formidable boxers.
